

MRS. HARRY THAW TELLS HOW WHITE RUINED HER

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Harry Thaw gave the following testimony at the trial today. She related her experience in the studio and said she had posed until she was very tired and that White, who had come in, ordered food. The photographer had left and after they had lunched she went into a dressing room to remove her kimono and put on her dress.

"I shut the door while I was inside. Mr. White came to the door and asked if I wanted any help. I said no."

She testified that she drank but one glass of champagne and when she was dressed she got into a carriage and was taken back to the hotel.

"The next night I got a note from Mr. White asking me to come down to the studio for a luncheon after the theater with some of his friends. I went down to the 24th street studio again and found Mr. White and no one else there. 'What do you think,' he said to me, 'the others have turned us down?' Then I told him I had better go home and he told me I had better sit down and have some fruit. I took off my hat and coat. Mr. White told me he had other floors in the garden and that I had not seen all of his places.

"So he took me up some stairs to the floor above, where there were very beautiful decorations, and a piano. I played for him and he took me into another room. That room was a bedroom. On a small table stood a bottle of champagne and one glass. Mr. White poured out just one glass for me, and I paid no attention to it. Mr. White went away, came back and said: 'I decorated this room myself.' Then he asked me why I was not drinking my champagne and I said I did not like it, it tasted bitter. But he persuaded me to drink, and I did.

"A few moments after I had drank it there began a pounding and thumping in my ears and the room all got black."

Mrs. Thaw was almost in tears at this statement.

"When I awoke my clothes had all been taken off me. I started to scream. Mr. White got up and threw a kimono on me. As I sat up I saw mirrors all around the bed. I began to scream again and Mr. White asked me to keep quiet, saying that it was all over.

"When he threw the kimono over me he left the room. I screamed harder than ever. I don't remember how I got my clothes on. He took me home and I sat up all night crying."

"Where was Mr. White when you recovered?"

"He was on the bed beside me, undressed."

"What did he say afterward?"

"He made me swear I would never tell my mother about it. He said there was no use in talking, and the greatest thing in the world was not to get found out. He said the girls in the theaters were foolish to talk. He laughed afterwards.

Declares He Drugged Her in His Studio in New York City.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The announcement that either the mother or wife of Harry K. Thaw would be the principal witness at today's proceedings brought out an unusually large crowd at the criminal court building. The corridors were filled and scores of persons, many of them women, tried every possible way to force themselves by the officers at the courtroom doors, but after yesterday's laxity the bars were put up again and very few were allowed to pass. However, half a score of women managed to succeed.

Justice Fitzgerald had just taken his seat upon the bench when Mr. Delmas of Thaw's counsel requested the clerk to call Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw.

The familiar figure in blue, now for the first time without her veil, appeared from the judge's chambers. She stood near the jury box as Clerk Penny administered the oath.

"I swear," repeated Mrs. Thaw in an audible voice at the end of the formal declaration.

Mrs. Thaw took her place in the witness chair calmly. She looked steadily ahead at Mr. Delmas and gave her answers to his first questions in a clear and firm voice, which was soft in quality. Harry Thaw smiled at his wife as she walked to the witness stand, but she apparently did not see him at the moment. After she was seated, however, she smiled faintly at the prisoner.

Mrs. Thaw's beauty seemed heightened by the simplicity of her dress.

In the excitement of testifying her paleness of the past two weeks fled before a rush of crimson tints in her cheeks.

Dinner at Cafe Martin.

In answer to Mr. Delmas' first question Mrs. Thaw said she was born December 25th, 1884. She told of going to the Cafe Martin to dinner the evening of June 25th with her husband and Thomas McCaleb and Truxton Beale.

"While you were at the Cafe Martin did you see Stanford White?"

"Yes."

"At what time did you see him?"

"I don't know, it was some time after we arrived."

"Where did you first see him?"

"Coming in at the Fifth avenue entrance."

"How long did you see him?"

"I don't know. He passed through and went on to the balcony."

"Did you see him leave the balcony?"

"Yes."

Wrote Note on Slip of Paper.

"While you were in the Cafe Martin did you call for a pencil?"

"Yes."

"From whom?"

"I think Mr. McCaleb. He said he did not have one."

"Did you ask again for a pencil?"

"Yes. I got one from some one."

"Did you write a note?"

"I did."

"On what?"

"A slip of paper."

"What did you do with it?"

"I passed it to Mr. Thaw."

"What did Mr. Thaw do?"

"He said to me 'Are you all right?' I said 'Yes.'"

"Affected?"

Mr. Jerome's objection to the question was sustained.

"Was there anything unusual in your manner that was visible to others?"

Again an objection was sustained.

"After this, how long did you remain?"

"Only a short time."

"Mrs. Thaw, have you that slip of paper now?"

"I have not."

"Have you seen it since?"

"No."

"Did what you wrote refer to White?"

Mr. Jerome objected.

"After you left the restaurant, you went to the Madison roof garden?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"Yes."

"About what time was it?"

"About the middle of the first act."

She Heard The Shots.

Mrs. Thaw said she sat in the seats with Mr. Beale and Mr. McCaleb. Her husband went to the back of the theater, she said. He was away about fifteen minutes and when he returned he took a seat beside her.

"How long did he remain at your side?"

"About half an hour."

"What was his manner then?"

"It seemed to be about the same as ever."

"Who suggested going away from the garden?"

"I did."

"The play was not interesting to you?"

"Not a bit."

"How did you start when you went out?"

"I think that Mr. McCaleb and I were in the lead and Mr. Thaw and Mr. Beale followed."

"How far had you gone when something happened?"

"Almost to the elevator."

"How far were you from Mr. White then?"

"About as far as the end of the jury box."

"You saw Mr. White sitting there?"

"I did."

"Did you see Mr. Thaw then?"

"Not until a minute or so afterward."

"Did you hear shots fired?"

"Yes, immediately that I saw Mr. White I heard the shots."

"What did you say?"

"I said to Mr. McCaleb 'I think he has shot him.'"

"Did Mr. Thaw come over to where you were?"

"Yes. I asked him what he had done. He leaned over and kissed me and said: 'I have probably saved your life.'"

"What happened then?"

"I left."

"You were taken from there?"

"Yes."

"You left and did not return?"

"Yes."

"You said that you are the wife of the defendant?"

"Yes."

"When were you married?"

"On April 4th, 1903."

"Where?"

"In Pittsburg, at the residence of Dr. McEwen, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church."

"Who were present?"

"I think Mr. Josiah Thaw, Mr. Thaw's brother," the witness went on, after a moment.

"When had Mr. Thaw proposed for the first time?"

"In June, 1903, in Paris."

"At the time did you refuse him?"

"Yes."

"Were the causes of your refusal based on an event in your life with which Mr. White was connected?"

Objection was sustained.

"Did you succeed in explaining your refusal that it had something to do with Stanford White?"

"Yes."

"State what happened."

Thaw Said He Loved Her.

"Mr. Thaw told me that he loved me and wanted to marry me. I stared at him for a moment and then he said: 'Don't you care for me?' and I said that I did. He asked me what was the matter. I said 'Nothing.' 'Why won't you marry me?' he said. He put his hands on my shoulder and asked: 'Is it because of Stanford White?' and I said 'Yes.' Then he told me he would never love anyone else or marry anyone else. I started to cry. He said he wanted me to tell him the whole thing. Then I began to tell him how I first met Stanford White. 'Be kind enough to remember you are to omit,' said Mr. Delmas, 'in relating the narrative of what you told Mr. Thaw, the name of any other person save that of Mr. White. Now continue.' 'A young lady asked my mother several times to let me go out with her to lunch. She came again and again to me before I sent her to my mother, and she said 'All right.'

"On the day I was to go my mother dressed me and I went with Miss—, the other young lady, in a hansom, hoping we would go to the ballroom because I wanted to see it. But we went straight down Broadway, through Twenty-fourth street, up to a dingy looking door. The young lady jumped out and asked me to follow her."

"By the way, what was the date of that event?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"As nearly as I can remember it was in August, 1901."

"You were then sixteen years old?"

"Yes."

"Your mother dressed you to go?"

"Yes."

"I must caution you to tell only what you told Mr. Thaw."

"I will," said the witness.

Meeting in Dingy Room.

"The dingy door opened, nobody seeming to open it. We went up some steps to another door which opened to some other apartment. I stopped and asked the young lady where we were going and she said 'It's all right.' A man's voice called down 'Hello.' 'Did you see the man then?' 'No.' 'When did you?' 'When we got to the top of the stairs.' 'Who was it?' 'It was Stanford White.' 'What did you find in the room or studio to which you went?' 'A table set for four.' 'This is all that you told Mr. Thaw?' asked Mr. Jerome. 'It was,' replied the witness. 'I told him everything.' There was a halt in the testimony here while Mr. Jerome and Mr. Delmas whispered.

"How were you dressed?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"I wore a short dress with my hair down my back."

The witness said they went up into another room where a big Japanese umbrella was swinging.

Mr. Jerome objected.

The witness said that afterwards they went for a drive to the park and returned to the house with Mr. White. She said when she got home she told her mother everything that happened.

"Did your mother subsequently receive a letter from Stanford White?"

"Yes."

"What was in the letter?"

"It asked my mother to call on Mr. White at No. 160 Fifth avenue."

Meeting With White.

"When your mother returned did she tell you anything?"

"She did."

"What did your mother tell you?"

"He asked her to take me to a dentist and have my teeth fixed and for her to have her own fixed."

AWFUL SCENE IN WHITE'S MIRROR ROOM

After Her Awful Confession Thaw Kneelt by Side of His Wife and Kissed Hem of Her Skirt

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Harry Thaw told her awful story to the twelve men in the jury box, she declared, just as she had related the incident to Harry Thaw one night in Paris late in 1903, when he had asked her to become his wife and she had told him she could not. When he pressed her for a reason she told him all. When she had concluded she said he knelt beside her, picked up the hem of her skirt and kissed it.

too. "She said 'No,' that it was a very strange thing. Mr. White told her that he did not know the other girls."

Bought Her Clothes.

When did you see White again?

"I saw him in the studio. I got a note from him inviting me to a party and saying a carriage would be awaiting me upon the corner. Before he had sent me a hat, a feather boa and a cape. There was another man and girl with us."

"Where did you go?"

"To the studio in Madison Square tower. We had a very nice time there. Mr. White said it was only to have one glass of champagne and that I was to be brought home early. I was brought home early to the door of my house. I told Mr. Thaw that we had several parties of this kind in the tower."

"Did you see Mr. White again?"

"Yes, he came to see my mother, told her that I would be all right in New York and that he would take care of me."

Mrs. Thaw said she met White in September 1901 in a studio in East Twenty-second street. The door opened of itself and the house looked at first as though no one lived there. She said that she went upstairs and met Mr. White, a photographer, and another man.

"What did you see there?"

"There was a lot of expensive gowns there."

"What happened?"

"I went into the dressing room to put on the dress. Mr. White knocked at the door and asked if I needed any help. I said 'No.'"

Mrs. Thaw then related the story of her ruin as given in black type on page one.

Thaw Was Excited.

"Was Mr. Thaw excited when you told him these things?"

"Yes, he was excited and walked up and down the room. We sat up all night. He said it was not my fault, that no one could blame me, and that I was only an unfortunate girl and that he did not think any the less of me."

"Did he offer to marry you?"

Posed for Artists.

"Finally I met Mr. Carroll Beck with the artist, in December, 1900, and he engaged me to pose for him, sometimes twice a week. He gave me letters of introduction to other well-known artists and I posed for them."

Did you tell Mr. Thaw all these things?"

"I did."

"Did you tell him how much money you made?"

"Yes, it was $17 or $18 a week."

Then, the witness continued, she applied for a position upon the stage. The first manager to whom she applied, said "That it was not a baby farm," and they did not want to take her.

"I danced for the manager, and he offered me a place, directing me not to tell how old I was."

"When did you first meet Thaw?"

"In 1901."

"How many times had you seen him between then and 1903?"

"I had only seen him once in the meantime."

"Were you ill during any of this time?"

"Yes, I had to go to a hospital."

White Sent Her to School.

"When you saw Mr. Thaw in 1903, did you tell him about going to school?"

"I told him that Mr. White had sent me to school."

The witness told of her sickness and the operation to which she was obliged to submit, and of Thaw's kindness to her at that time, which was early in 1903. After her recovery Thaw arranged the European trip for the witness and her mother. Thaw followed them to Europe.

Here reference was made to a letter that Thaw wrote to the witness while she was abroad, and Mr. Delmas sought to introduce it as evidence.

Mr. Jerome objected.

"What is the relevancy of this letter?" asked Justice Fitzgerald.

"Its contents have direct influence to the statement made by the witness to Mr. Thaw and is an evidence of the effect upon the mind of Mr. Thaw of the statements so made," replied Mr. Delmas.

He Ruined My Wife.

"If it were proper to admit the statement of Mr. Thaw after the shooting 'he has ruined my wife,'" argued Mr. Delmas, "is it not proper to admit a statement made after the defendant had learned facts to show what the effect of them was upon his mind?"

Mr. Delmas said that he did not have his authorities at the moment.

It was then 12:25 and Mr. Delmas asked for an adjournment until 2 o'clock.

NOT GUILTY OF ROBBERY

Frederick Peaslack, Accused of Crime, Discharged by the Police.

After having been detained in the city prison for several days upon suspicion of being one of the men who drugged and robbed William Key, Frederick Peaslack has been released by the police.

Frank Cook, arrested at the same time Peaslack was taken into custody, has been charged with robbery. It was alleged that the two men accosted Key on the street, drugged him in their rooms, beat him and then took his money, amounting to $110.

Detectives Quiles and Holland have been investigating the case and have cleared Peaslack of suspicion.

HUSBAND'S MISTAKE CAUSED HER DEATH

A coroner's jury last night decided that Mrs. Charles Brenner who died suddenly last Monday at her home, 832 Fifty-third street, had come to her death by poisoning morphine having been given her by her husband instead of other medicine. The young woman had complained of a headache and in the early morning darkness her husband obtained the wrong medicine giving his wife morphine capsules instead of headache capsules.

GIRL SLAYER IS GIVEN HER FREEDOM

AMITE City, La., Feb. 7.—"There may be a widow, but there will certainly be no grisly widow," said pretty Josephine Allene, an eighteen-year-old wife, who shot and killed her brother-in-law, Joe Cattlemanto, who had threatened to desert his wife, Baidette.

Mrs. Allene was exonerated by a jury on a charge of murder last night and the court gave her an absolute. She herself gave her an ovation. She herself was deserted by her husband several months ago. "It's no way to do," she said, "for a man to marry a pretty young woman and then desert her without cause. I did not want to see my sister meet the fate I have encountered."

Her Girlish Beauty Remarked on All Sides

WOMEN READY TO MAKE SACRIFICES FOR THAW

Female Spectators Can Hardly Be Kept in Their Seats by the Various Bailiffs on Duty in the Court.

NEW YORK Feb. 7.—One of the two women whose testimony is expected to have vital effect upon the fate of Harry K. Thaw will if the plans are not changed, take the witness stand in Justice Fitzgerald's court in the case of the People against Thaw when court convenes today. This is the plan of the defense as it was announced when court adjourned yesterday afternoon.

Whether the witness will be Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the wife or Mrs. William Thaw, the mother, was not announced but whichever it is the crucial part of the trial is regarded as beginning with the taking of their evidence.

Both of these women are ready to sacrifice anything in the hope that they may save the life of the man on whom their affections have centered. One of these women will begin her story today—both probably will testify within the week.

MRS. CHARLES J. HOLMAN, mother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who is very bitter against her son-in-law and has announced her intention to testify against him when he is on trial for the murder of Stanford White. It is doubtful if she will be called by the prosecution.

THE SACRIFICE. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the former chorus girl, is ready to lay bare to the world the whole story of her young life that she may help the man who made her his wife and who, the prosecution claims, killed Stanford White for jealousy of her. Just what her story will be, none but the defense knows, but it is expected she will tell of wrongs which, it is claimed, Thaw so brooded over that he became insane and made himself her avenger.

Just what her story will be, none but the defense knows, but it is expected she will tell of wrongs which, it is claimed, Thaw so brooded over that he became insane and made himself her avenger.

WOMEN PRESENT. At the afternoon session of the court yesterday women first appeared in large numbers. Whether it was because the time when the mother and wife will testify was fast approaching, or whether it was because of Justice Fitzgerald's action in the morning in giving the women in the room an opportunity to withdraw before hearing testimony "which might well shock their sensibilities," it is impossible to say. But they were there in large numbers in millinery, and twisting and craning to get a sight of the defendant's face. So insistent were they that it was necessary for several bailiffs to circulate constantly among them to keep them from rising in their seats.

DOORKEEPER. Yesterday's proceedings in the trial were snappy and somewhat unsatisfactory. They gave no opportunity for the observer to decide what the more important witnesses for the defense would say. Benjamin Boman, formerly a stage doorkeeper at the Madison Square theater, testified that Stanford White had called at the theater one night three years ago to see Evelyn Nesbit, and when he heard that she had gone away with Thaw, drew a revolver and threatened to find and kill someone before daylight. The witness supposed that this referred to Thaw, but admitted that White did not mention his name. Thomas McCaleb, who was with Thaw and his wife the night of the killing both at Martin's at dinner and at the Madison Square theater, testified that he saw Mrs. Thaw at Martin's pass a note across the table to Thaw. It has been claimed since the shooting that it was the contents of this note that finally determined Thaw to kill White. Mr.

FAT GIRLS LOATHSOME

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—White made Mrs. Thaw promise she must never tell her mother. He said it was all right—that there was "nothing so nice as young girls and nothing as loathesome as fat ones. You must never get fat."

Mrs. Thaw said she told Thaw that she could not marry him, for White would always know and would laugh at him and talk. Mrs. Thaw said the effect of her story on Thaw was terrible. He sobbed and walked the floor and stayed all night sitting in the room and talking it over.

IT IS ALL OVER NOW

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was the first witness in the Thaw case today. Mrs. Thaw said she first met Thaw at private luncheon in 1901, and that later White sent her mother to Pittsburg and then took her to one of his studios where she lived with him. Mrs. Thaw told of an experience with White in a mirrored bedroom. She screamed and screamed but he said: "It is all over now."

POURED SCALDING WATER ON GIRL

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—At the afternoon session Mrs. Thaw testified that when Thaw returned from Europe she refused to see him because she had heard that he had put a girl in a bathtub and poured scalding water on her.

Delmas, Thaw's leading counsel, dramatically asked District Attorney Jerome to produce this note, but the District Attorney failed even to reply to the request. argument Mr. Delmas contended that the defendant was entitled to every reasonable doubt, not only in the facts in the case, but in the law as well. sh monk, h. DEALS DIRECT WITH SULTAN

American Ambassador Thus Hopes to Settle School Question.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 7.—Wearied with delays so characteristic of Turkish officialdom, the American ambassador, Mr. Leishman, has suddenly raised into prominence the question of the recognition of the American schools by communicating directly with the sultan, urging the necessity of prompt settlement of the question. The ministers thus ignored have been stirred into unwonted activity and the departments concerned, acting under orders from the sultan, have entered into negotiations with the embassy. The embassy is pressing matters hard, with the hope of a final adjustment, and the frequent exchange of written communications, as well as visits between officials of the porte and the embassy are soon to lead to satisfactory results.

The question was settled in principle nearly three years ago, but the obstructiveness and dilatoriness at the palace and on the part of the porte delayed the official reference of the agreement arrived at.

HARBOR LODGE HOLDS SESSION

On Wednesday evening Harbor Lodge No. 253 L. O. F. held the most interesting meeting of the term. Several new members are being initiated and the brothers are taking hold with the old time enthusiasm that brought Harbor's degree team to the front as one of the crack teams of the State. Friday evening, February 8, a fraternal visit will be paid Porter Lodge 272 for the purpose of putting on the second degree, which will be followed by Porter in the third degree. IT WAS A SIMPLE NARRATIVE, TOLD IN A GIRLISH WAY. IN ITS MIDST THE YOUNG WOMAN BROKE DOWN AND CRIED, AND COULD ONLY PROCEED WITH DIFFICULTY. HER HUSBAND SAT BRAVE-FACED FOR AWHILE; THEN HE, TOO, BURST INTO TEARS AND BURIED HIS FACE FOR SOME TIME IN A HANDKERCHIEF. WHEN HE AGAIN LOOKED UP HIS EYES WERE RED FROM WEeping.

The Hoodlum Argument in New York

The New York Times has made itself the most abusive and untruthful assailant of the people of the Pacific Coast. It correctly interprets the constitutional powers of the States, but in treating of the Japanese-school issue its statements of fact are grossly false and its language laden with insult. Speaking of the legal phase of the controversy, the Times says:

"A treaty, though it be the supreme law of the land, may not assume the control and regulation of matters over which the Federal Government under the Constitution has no power. An adverse decision, therefore, would simply be a decision that, since the Government at Washington has no control over the public schools of States, the words 'rights of residence' in the treaty cannot be construed as including the right of school attendance. If the decision of the Circuit Court should be affirmed by the Supreme Court, on appeal, we should then know the law of the land. We should know that public opinion, as expressed in the Constitution, sanctions State control of schools."

This is not only correct, but a frank admission that the San Francisco Board of Education acted strictly within their lawful authority in establishing a separate school for Oriental children. But nowhere does the Times give the facts of the case correctly. It always speaks of the San Francisco school board denying Japanese children "admittance to the schools," when, in fact, there has been no such denial. The Japanese object to attending schools separate from those maintained for white children. The point at issue, therefore, is not one of educational opportunity but of social equality. It is in touching this phase of the matter that the New York Times abandons truth and decency. This paragraph illustrates its mendacity and blackguardly tone:

"Public opinion in the United States looks upon the anti-Japanese movement in San Francisco as an atrocious exhibition of the hoodlum sentiment. It is a local sentiment, and nowhere else prevails. The presence of Japanese children in public schools is objected to only in San Francisco. Elsewhere they are received and welcomed like other children. So far from sanctioning, public opinion condemns the action of the San Francisco school board, which is taken to represent no higher sentiment or principle than the objection of organized labor agitators to Japanese immigration."

The Times misrepresents public sentiment in other sections of the country as well as that prevailing on the Pacific Coast, and in doing so gives the Japanese, and foreigners generally, a false impression of the attitude of the American people. Where there are few or no Japanese there is naturally no issue with respect to Japanese mixing indiscriminately with white children in the public schools. Wherever the Japanese have become noticeably numerous objection manifests itself, and becomes more marked as the Japanese increase in number. The objection is not confined to "hoodlums and labor agitators," as the Times alleges, but is heard from all classes. Seven years ago the Board of Education of Alameda segregated Japanese and Chinese children from whites in the schools, but little was heard of the matter because Japan had not then grown cocky over her defeat of Russia. In San Jose, where a population of 2000 Japanese has recently gathered, segregation is becoming a sharply defined issue. In Oakland, where a population of 2000 has recently gathered, the segregation is becoming a sharply defined issue.

The people of California will not be persuaded to surrender their legal rights and bow to the dictation of the Japanese government by having the New York Times calling them hoodlums, nor can the President remove objections prompted by contact and experience by calling Mayor Schmitz "a bassoon player." The municipal accomplishments of the mayor have nothing to do with the case. At the same time it does not tend toward an adjustment of the differences between our government and the government of Japan to represent that the action of the San Francisco school board has the support only of an ignorant and vicious minority. It is supported by an overwhelming majority of Californians. The President may play Tommy Softsoap to the Japanese if he part suits him, but his bluster and big stick swinging will not make the people of this State recede from their position. Nor is the Wall Street organ of the administration mending matters by calling us hoodlums. That sort of thing had its day when the agitation which resulted in the exclusion of the Chinese was in progress. It is the language of the Pharisee and hypocrite who abuses his neighbor as a pretext for putting wrong and indignity upon him.

We sympathize with Admiral Dewey's reported profane indignation at the "damned cowardice" which appears to rule the minds of certain high officials, but his talk about "sweeping the Japanese navy from the seas" is ill-advised, being calculated to provoke bad blood. While the American people are not afraid of Japan, they cherish only a friendly feeling for the Japanese nation and have no desire to wound the pride or sensibilities of the Mikado's subjects. They find no fault because American children are excluded from Japanese schools or because Americans are not allowed to own real estate in Japan, but insist upon managing our own schools in our own way without foreign interference. The difficulty seems to be that the seats of the mighty in Washington are occupied by men who lack the nerve to inform the Japanese that the public schools, like many other domestic institutions, are not under the control of the Federal government and are inviolable under the national constitution from foreign or Federal invasion.

It is estimated that the total value of all grain and hay crops produced in California during 1906 was $77,344,521. The value of all bean and potato crops was $16,004,533. The orange and lemon crops are estimated at $25,000,000, and the deciduous fruit crops at $40,000,000 more. The gold yield was a little over $19,000,000. This foots up the magnificent total of $177,349,054, but there is one crop in one State that exceeds it by a good round sum. The agricultural department estimates the cotton crop of Texas for 1906 to be 3,900,000 bales, worth, including the seed, $219,000,000. Evidently the Texans have taken Phil Sheridan's advice to quit raising h-ll and raise more cotton.

New York proposes to levy a tax on automobiles for the improvement and maintenance of the public roads. That is what we should do in California. The law of this State requires that automobiles shall be registered and licensed, but the license tax is turned into the general fund. It should be expended exclusively for road purposes, as THE TRIBUNE suggested some days ago. Motorists should take this matter up and urge the Legislature to devote the proceeds of automobile licenses to building and maintaining highways since the utility of the motor car depends upon good roads.

Be on Your Guard, Oaklanders.

The suggestion (kindly offered from San Francisco) that the Oakland water front be placed under the control of the San Francisco State Board of Harbor Commissioners is not a welcome one. We shall not inquire into the motive that prompted it, but beg to decline it with thanks. We don't want the San Francisco system here, and object to having our water front controlled by San Francisco interests. The Oakland water front should be controlled in the interests of Oakland and its inhabitants, and not by outsiders in the interests of outsiders.

On this point there should be no division of sentiment in this city. We want our water front improved to meet the requirements of modern marine commerce, and we want no unnecessary burdens laid on trade and shipping. The commerce that passes to the sea over our wharves should be taxed as lightly as possible, hence the suggestion that Oakland harbor be made an annex to the political machine that has existed for so many years on the San Francisco water front is exceedingly distasteful. We do not want private enterprise to be hampered and restricted or burdened with unnecessary expense to gratify the appetite of spoilsmen or to further the shipping interests on the other side of the bay. Still less do we want the interests of this city sacrificed to promote either political or commercial schemes to which our people are not a party.

The Oakland water front is for Oakland. That should be the battle cry of every civic organization in the city. We must not allow State ownership to be made an instrument for defeating the aspiration Oakland has cherished of becoming a great maritime city. Let us keep our water front affairs separate from those of San Francisco, and to do that we must prevent the San Francisco harbor board from reaching out to take control of our docks and wharves.

Our problems, like our interests, are distinct and apart from those of San Francisco. Let us keep them so. This is a matter deserving of thoughtful attention, and it is one that should enlist the self-interest of every citizen. The control of our harbor should be directed from an Oakland standpoint.

A Washington dispatch quotes an unnamed California Congressman as saying he is in favor of abolishing the separate school in San Francisco for Orientals "to show the Japanese that we do not want war and that we do not provoke it." Who is this Congressman? Is he one of many mythical persons used to voice White House ideas and inspiration? Was the establishment of the separate school for Orientals an indication that we wanted war with Japan? Is that school a provocation to the Japanese to make war on us? Are we to understand that war or peace depends upon the abolition of that school? The craven rot that escapes from Washington mystifies the people on the Pacific Coast as to the spirit and purposes of the President. Is it Teddy Roosevelt or Bob Acres that is talking from the White House?

If you want some eye-opening pointers as to how Oakland is booming along, read the real estate news in THE TRIBUNE.

Clever Business Men

have long ago shown the poor policy of indifference to dress, and custom demands only a difference in style between business and dress clothes. No man is over fastidious because he requires a made-to-measure business suit. He is merely a wide awake, energetic man of affairs and appreciates fully that he is a gentleman and wants to look it.

THE OAKLAND WATER FRONT

(San Francisco Call, Feb. 7.)

The right to wharf out to ship channel is the really important gain made by the city of Oakland through the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals. Under that right, which the court recognizes as exclusive, the city can presumably extend its streets in the form of wharves to deep water all the way along the southern and western fronts of the city. The decision opens the way for the creation of an imperial system of docks. Condemnation proceedings may be required in some instances to complete the system, but the city should never again surrender control of the water front, which, after a conflict ranging over half a century, it has regained more by accident than good guidance.

It will not do for Oakland to sit down complacently, regarding conditions as if they were absolutely established by the decision just rendered. The case pending between the railroads may or may not be fought out to the court of last resort. It is a suit between private corporations and can be settled out of court any moment by compromise under which public rights may be ignored or even taken away. It is imperative that the city of Oakland and the State of California shall appear as intervenors in the pending litigation before the Federal courts.

The Southern Pacific lawyers are ingenious and resourceful, but apparently they are not greatly impressed by the wisdom of courts. That state of mind may be due to their success in persuading judges to accept nonsense as good law. One of them is quoted as taking a position since the recent decision in support of an astonishing theory—born yesterday—that the moles and wharves of the Southern Pacific were indeed true wharves during the life of the privilege granted to Carpenter for thirty-seven years, but on the expiry of that concession they at once suffered some sort of sea change and became parts of the mainland occupied by a railroad. This theory might take its place alongside of the doctrine of accretion in accord with which the low-water mark defining the limits of Southern Pacific property was forever marching westward with the process of the tides, so that every ounce of slickens dredged from the bay and deposited on the Oakland water front became vested with the sacred character of real estate as railroad property. That sort of nonsense was prosperous until it struck the Court of Appeals, but it will never cease to be entertaining.

BAD PROGRESSION.

John Stetson, who was famous in his day as an unlettered theatrical manager, was having a yacht built. A friend, meeting him on the street, asked him what he was going to name the boat.
"I haven't decided yet," replied John, "but it will be some name commencing with S; probably Psyche or Cinch."

The elopement of Reed Knox, son of United States Senator Philander C. Knox, and Miss Elizabeth F. SUES FOR ALIENATION OF DEAD HUSBAND'S LOVE

Mother and Daughter Both Defendants in Action Brought by a Missouri Woman.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Winney M. Harrington, former wife of the late Col. Almus Harrington, of Christian County, has filed suit for $30,000 against Mrs. Ellen A. Harrington, widow of Col. Harrington, and Mrs. Catherine Woody, her mother, for the alleged alienation of the affections of her former husband.

Col. Harrington was one of the best known lawyers of Southwestern Missouri and a veteran of the civil war. He died only a few weeks ago.

In her petition, Mrs. Harrington sets forth that she was married to Col. Harrington Feb. 28, 1865. At that time he could neither read nor write, and was very poor. She worked to help him make a living and taught him the rudiments of education at night. She alleges that in 1894 the defendants alienated his affections, and in 1903 he obtained a divorce from her and married Ellen A. Woody, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Woody.

Mrs. Harrington asks $10,000 for the alienation, $10,000 as her dower right and $10,000 punitive damages.

MRS. SAGE MAY HAVE TO PAY STILL BIGGER STUFF

Misunderstanding Exists in Certain Quarters Regarding Payment of $625,000 by the Estate.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Misunderstanding exists in some quarters over the payment of $625,000 by the estate of Russell Sage as the amount of the inheritance tax due the State. The payment was made by DeLancey N. Hill, attorney for the executors, as a tender to the State Comptroller, based on the estimate placed upon its value by Mrs. Sage and her advisors. Under the law the estate thus saves interest upon that amount and gets the legal rebate for payment within a certain period. The payment is not a final settlement.

At the inheritance tax bureau, in the Hall of Records, it was said that proceedings had not yet been brought through the Surrogate's office to assess the amount of the tax upon an official valuation. The amount deposited is one per cent. of the value of the Sage estate as assumed by the executors. In other words the executors value the estate at $62,500,000. The previous estimates placed the fortune left by the late Russell Sage between $50,000,000 and $55,000,000.

If the appraisers raise the valuation to a higher figure than the executors estimate it the Comptroller will require payment to the State of one per cent. of the difference. If on the other hand, the official valuation should fall below $62,500,000, the estate will receive back the over-payment.

As it stands the State has received only three larger payments since the Inheritance Tax law has been upon the statute books, and it is thought likely the official appraisement will send the total payment up to second place, next to that paid by the George Smith estate, which was appraised near the $700,000 mark.

"Residents of this city are not fully aware of the magnitude of the State's income from the inheritance tax," said an official of the Inheritance Tax Bureau in this city yesterday. "The annual payments aggregate some $3,000,000. There is no possibility of escaping the tax. No trust company or other depository dares transfer a share of stock or permit access to a safe deposit box save in the presence of an officer from the Surrogate's court."

"Some estates have paid three and four taxes in succession. This has happened when a portion of an estate has been inherited by a wife, who in turn dies, and it reverts to an heir, who also dies."

DON'T FORGET
That children are more easily affected by ill by poisoned air than grown people, and that great care should be taken not to let them play near drains and to prevent the proximity of a ventilating pipe, drain, grating or dust bin in the room where they sleep or play.

That no child under 6 be out of bed after 6:30 in the evening, except in midsummer, when it has a long sleep during the hot afternoon.

That no baby should be put in a go-cart or anything but a baby carriage until it is strong enough to run about; then a cart or chair is of use to give it lifts off its legs occasionally.

BACHELOR GIRLS IN EAST SEEKING IDEAL HUSBANDS

Members of Clubs Draw Portraits and Hope to Find the Living Realities.

ROYERSFORD, Pa., Feb. 6.—With the firm purpose of obtaining ideal husbands, ten young women of Royersford had banded themselves together and named the organization the Bachelor Girls' Club. The club met at the home of the Misses Bendewalt on Saturday evenings, and each member drew a picture of an ideal man. These pictures were shown about, and as each description corresponded with the girl's ideal, she chose that one, and every member is to assist in the search for such a man.

After each member had picked her ideal husband games were played and different contests were indulged in. Then a banquet was served and the room was decorated with the club's colors, red and green. Corsage bouquets of red immortelles and cedar tied in red ribbon were laid at each cover.

After partaking of the repast ribbons were drawn from the centerpiece on the end of which as a favor. Each favor proved to be a musical instrument of some description.

It is noted among the young men that the Bachelor Girls' Club will become a fine, musical organization, and the youthful beaux of the town are greatly worried to know whether the bachelors have chosen them for their ideals or out-of-town gentlemen. Already plans are on foot to form a "widows' men's club," with the object of trying to mould their characters to the supposed ideals of the young ladies.

The following are members of the Bachelor Club: Misses Dora, Anna and Bertha Bendewalt, Ethel Isett, Stella Usner, Evelyn Bowman, Ada Raiser, Sadie Mission, Eva Swartley and Mabel Loomis.

MRS. YERKES-MIZNER DID NOT KNOW SISTER DIED

First Information Millionaire's Widow Received by a Telephone Message From the Undertaker.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—An undertaker's telephone message was the first news Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, widow of the traction financier, and now Mrs. Mizner, received of the death of her youngest sister, Mrs. Clara Alice Moore Dolan, in a little four-room flat looking out on the alley at the back of No. 12 West One Hundred and Fourth street.

Just after midnight recently Mrs. Dolan died of pneumonia, which had developed so rapidly that the three physicians called hurriedly, late that night could not aid her.

With her when she died was her half-sister, Miss Gertrude Luby, and her two children, Clara, aged twelve, and Edward, aged ten. Her husband has never been seen by the other tenants of the apartment house.

Mrs. Yerkes had allowed her sister to pass out of her life at the time of the separation between her husband and herself. She never called on her and in all the years that Mrs. Dolan lived in New York Mrs. Yerkes did not see her. It is said that Mrs. Dolan took sides with Mr. Yerkes.

The undertaker telephoned to Mrs. Yerkes and was told to go at once to the house. He went, and on his return announced that the body would be taken to Philadelphia and buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery by the side of Mrs. Dolan's mother.

It is understood that Mrs. Yerkes will pay the expenses of the funeral, although Miss Luby said that Mrs. Dolan was one of ten heirs of the $1,000,000 estate of her father, Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, superintendent of the Powers-Weightman Chemical Company, which is now in litigation. She said the estate of the dead woman was ample to pay all charges. Miss Luby said that at one time Mrs. Dolan had worked at proofreading in a large printing plant in this city.

JUDGE ALLOWS UNRULY CHILDREN TO GO HOME

Were Said to Be So Naughty That No School in Philadelphia Would Receive Them.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—Two little girls who are said to be so very, very naughty that no public school in the city will receive them as pupils were brought into the Juvenile Court. They are Gertrude Smith and Ellen Uhler, both eleven years old. Judge Breyer was in a quandary to know what to do with them, for they are too young to go to the House of Refuge. Finally the children were allowed to go home with their parents.

The judge took occasion to rebuke the parents of young William Lord, who had been arrested for breaking into railroad cars. They told the judge that Willie had fallen into bad company, and the judge advised them to leave the neighborhood, but they said they had spent too much money on their home to move.

"If you had spent some of that money on your son's education you wouldn't need to move," said the judge. But he let Willie go home.

TEACHER LEAVES SCHOOL WHEN PUPIL BEATS HER

Grandson of Trustee Was Encouraged to Defy Instructor, Say People in New Jersey Town.

NEW YORK, FEB. 7.—Parents in South Plainfield, N. J., are indignant over the forced resignation of Miss Margaret Steele, a teacher in the public school there. Miss Steele resigned recently after a boy pupil had brutally attacked her, and the Board of Trustees and Principal Mescal had failed to punish the youth, who is a grandson of one of the trustees.

Miss Steele's resignation is the culmination of trouble which began last September. Lloyd Harris, grandson of J. F. Ten Eyck, a trustee, has been especially annoying, and every effort made by Miss Steele to discipline the youngster met with a rebuke from the Board of Trustees and Principal Mescal, it is said.

OPENLY DEFEY TEACHER

Other boy pupils followed the example set by Harris, and openly defied their teacher. When the disorderly pupils were sent to Principal Mescal for punishment they were treated kindly, it is alleged, and told to return to the classroom and pay no attention to the teacher.

As Miss Steele had no power to punish the boys, she had to submit to their insults. It is charged that a member of the Board of Trustees circulated the report that Miss Steele was abusing her pupils, and many parents advised their children to act as they thought best. As a consequence they jeered at their teacher and talked out loud during school hours. When she rebuked them they laughed at her.

Miss Steele told the boys that she could not attempt to teach them unless they behaved themselves. A burst of laughter followed. One of the boys asked the teacher if she thought she was running a kindergarten class.

Miss Steele was convinced that Lloyd Harris was the boy who answered her and she decided to punish him. She ordered the boy to come to her desk, but he refused to move. The teacher went to his seat and caught him by the shoulder.

"I won't move unless you let go of

FOR THE FAIR SEX

MRS. M.—Being pretty does not necessarily hinder a woman from being intellectual. If she is clever enough to be beautiful, she should be smart enough to be brainy. In the old days a mother wept if her girl child were blessed with good looks. The plain girl was always considered the safe, stay-at-home girl. Nowadays things are turned face about. The girl who is plain is plain because she does not know how to be otherwise. Beautifying of one kind brings along beauty of another kind. The girl who cultivates a sweet, smiling face finds it so desirable that she grows a heart to match it. We have finally realized the far-reaching effects of genuine loveliness. It means many things—kindness, patience, self-control, happiness. The possibilities of good looks are in every woman. It is only recently that this discovery has been made. If we are ugly it is not because the Lord made us so, but because our ignorance has caused the ugliness.

CRYSTAL—Formula for cucumber cream: Liquid from two overripe cucumbers, twenty grains of white wax, two ounces of pure oil of sweet almonds, one-half ounce of pure glycerin, six drops of oil of rose. Slice the cucumbers very thin, put on a plate and cover with another plate and let stand over night in a cool place. Melt the wax and almond oil in a shallow dish over hot water, remove from heat, and, as the mixture cools, add the glycerin slowly, then the juice from the cucumbers, lastly pouring in the oil of rose. Beat with a silver fork or an egg beater until white and creamy. This may be used like any other cold cream. It will be found to be very nice for sunburn and chapped skin. Formula for cucumber milk appears here frequently. It is a splendid skin cleanser and whiteners.

AGED LADY—White hair is often discolored by the use of hair-growing pomades and lotions. The curling iron will often make it yellow. When these dingy hues appear, it is a good plan to shampoo the hair well with hot water and eggs, adding one teaspoonful of salts of tartar to the first water and a few drops of ordinary bluing to the last.

Z. X.—The following mixture has been found excellent for the blotting out of moth patches: Thirty grains of bismuth oxide, thirty grains of pulverized starch, one fluid dram of kolinol, two fluid drams of glycerin and two fluid drams of rosewater. Paint the spot with this at bedtime, bathing away next morning. MME. QUI VIVE.

me," sullenly said the boy.

BOY STRIKES TEACHER

Miss Steele released the lad and immediately he began to punch her. Miss Steele sank to the floor, weeping, and appealed to the other pupils to defend her. None of them moved.

When she had recovered herself the teacher ordered Lloyd Harris to go to the office of Principal Mescal. She reported all that had occurred to the principal and left the boy with him. The lad was given a seat in the principal's office and told to study his lessons there. That was the extent of his punishment.

Miss Steele announced that she would not hear the lessons of any of her children unless the Board of Trustees took action on the charge against Lloyd Harris. The boy was not punished. Miss Steele resigned and a special meeting of the Board of Trustees was called to accept her resignation. Broken in health and sick at heart, the teacher left for her home in Oswego, N. Y.

MOTHER DEFENDS TEACHER

Mrs. Joseph Harlow, who has three children in the school, declared that the conduct of the Board of Trustees and some of the parents who encouraged their children to defy Miss Steele was outrageous.

"I have known Miss Steele ever since she came to South Plainfield, and I always regarded her as a splendid teacher and an especially nice young woman," said Mrs. Harlow. "I had no fault to find with the way she handled my children. Some of the trustees say she was cruel, but I know better."

Mrs. Harlow called her son Joseph to testify as to the kindness and capability of Miss Steele. Residents of South Plainfield are now talking of making a complaint against the boy to the Board of Trustees. When Trustee Ten Eyck was seen he said:

"I cannot see what interest there can be in the resignation of a teacher. She had no reason to resign except that she wanted to go home for a rest."

SEEKS FORMER POSITION; ONE OF FIRM WEDS HER

Woman Had Left Business House to Marry Young Engineer and Returns a Widow.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Margaret McElroy returned a widow to the shirt-making house of Hensel & Colladay, in this city, and sought to get back her old position as bookkeeper. Instead Stephen B. Colladay, a wealthy member of the firm, gave her a position in his household as Mrs. Colladay.

It was just six years ago that the pretty bookkeeper met and married John McElroy, a young mining engineer, and went West to live, but McElroy died four years later. From the time she left the firm Mr. Colladay frequently spoke of the former accountant and of her strikingly handsome face and figure. No one thought anything about his remarks, though, except in that she had been a valuable employee. Besides, Mr. Colladay had always manifested an interest in the welfare of his bookkeeper, and his friendliness was supposed to be entirely platonic. He was a widower and is sixty-seven years old.

The wedding came as a complete surprise to the friends of both. Mrs. McElroy, who is now only thirty, called to see Mr. Colladay at his office, and they slipped away quietly to the parsonage of the Rev. J. Alvin Orr, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church at Hancock street and Susquehanna avenue. The same clergyman married the present bride before.

Miss Mae Mulholland, a sister of the bride, who teaches in the public schools, was the only witness of the ceremony. Immediately afterward Mr. and Mrs. Colladay started for Florida. They will return in about a month and make their home at the Hotel Loraine.

WOMAN HUNTER KILLS GREAT AFRICAN BEASTS

Shoots Two Out of Eight Elephants and One of Four Rhinoceros While With Party.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—After fourteen months in the interior of Africa, during thirteen of which he lived under canvas, Carl E. Akeley, of the Field Columbian Museum, Chicago, and Mrs. Akeley are on their way home.

They bring eighty-four cases of skins and skeletons, weighing seventeen tons, the results of their expedition, which will be added to the museum collection. Intending to be gone only a few months, Mrs. Akeley remained with the expedition to the end, it being the longest African hunting trip ever taken by a woman.

She took an active part in all the hunting, and two of the eight elephants and one of the four rhinoceroses were shot by her.

NEGRO HOUSE MAIDS DEMAND HIGHER WAGES

Urged by Their Pastor, They Make Residents Pay $1.50 for Their Labor by the Hour.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Acting upon advice given to them in a sermon by the Rev. Samuel Jones, pastor of the Salem Baptist Church, Jenkintown, the negro women of that section are refusing to work for less than $1.50 a day.

Things have come to such a pass in the Old York road region that many of the fashionable families are worried almost to the point of breaking up house-keeping. They have now taken to hiring "help" by the hour, instead of by the day. It is almost impossible to get domestics for less than $6 a week, including board and lodging.

The earning capacity of negro women is now greater on the average than the earning capacity of their fathers, husbands and brothers.

AFTERNOON SESSION OF THAW CASE

Afternoon Session.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The courtroom was crowded to its utmost capacity this afternoon.

Roger O'Mara, head of a detective force employed by the defense, had a fifteen minute's conference with Mrs. Harry Thaw during the recess.

Former Judge William K. Olcott, who was the first counsel engaged for Thaw in his defense, appeared during recess, and conferred with Mr. Garvan.

He was told that it was understood that Mrs. Evelyn Thaw had made a statement in regard to her relations with White and with Thaw to Judge Olcott when the trouble first came up. Judge Olcott was asked to present the signed statement if it were in existence, or to be ready to testify if he were wanted.

Mr. Delmas was about to renew his argument for the production of the letter of Harry Thaw to an attorney named Longfellow, just after the Paris incident, when Mr. Jerome said he would withdraw his objection. He first asked permission to read the letter. It was as follows:

"Mrs. N. insisted on sailing for New York when her daughter left. I kept Mrs. N. in London three months, cost over $1000. Mrs. Nesbit sails tomorrow for New York. She thinks I kidnapped her seventeen year old daughter. Before she lands she will know that I have always done the best I could. The child cannot be with her mother, because when she was fifteen years old she was ruined by a blackguard. Don't worry, but find out her address. Telephone Mrs. N., but not in your name. Ask her if she saw Mr. Thaw abroad. As soon as she answers hang up the phone."

On a slip of paper enclosed was written: "If you cannot read this don't worry. Please telephone her in and wire me at my expense." The letter was signed "H. K. T."

Thaw's Letter.

Mr. Delmas offered another letter written by Thaw. Mr. Jerome objected on the ground that there was nothing to indicate its date.

Mr. Delmas declared that the letter was admissible as tending to show a state of mind, regardless of when it was written.

"Suppose it should have been written yesterday," suggested Justice Fitzgerald.

"I think it would be admissible," replied Delmas.

"That the defendant is now insane," quickly interposed Mr. Jerome.

"That he was insane on the night of June 26, 1906," said Mr. Delmas.

Justice Fitzgerald sustained the objection.

"If the claim is that the defendant is now insane, the letters are admissible," remarked Mr. Jerome.

Mrs. Thaw was shown one of the letters and asked:

"Was this letter written before or after June 25, 1906?"

Mr. Jerome objected on the ground that Mrs. Thaw was not qualified to express an opinion.

The court sustained the objection.

The subject of letters was then dropped.

In response to questions by Mr. Delmas, Mrs. Thaw described her return trip from Europe in 1903, which preceded the return of Mr. Thaw. She said that she brought a letter from Thaw to Mr. Longfellow, which she delivered. She first saw Thaw a month after his return to the hotel where she was stopping. She refused to see him alone, so another man was present at the interview.

Kissed Her Hand.

"The second man," asked Mr. Delmas, "was a member of the bar, a man of standing in the community, was he not?"

"Yes."

"What happened at this interview?"

"I sat on a trunk. Mr. Thaw came toward me and I asked the other man not to leave the room. Mr. Thaw said to me, 'What is the matter? Why don't you want to see me any more?' I told him I had heard certain things about him and did not care to see him. He asked me what I had heard and I said: 'I have been told that you took a girl and put her in a bathtub and poured scalding water on her.' I also told him I heard he took morphine."

"Did you tell Thaw who told you these stories?"

"Not at first. Later I told him a friend of Mr. White told me."

"What did Mr. Thaw do?"

"He shook his head sadly and said: 'Poor little Evelyn, I see they have been making a fool of you.' I told him that Mr. White had taken me to Abe Hummel's law office and had shown me papers in a suit which a girl had made charges against Mr. Thaw."

"How long did the interview last?"

"About ten minutes."

"What did Mr. Thaw do on leaving?"

"He kissed my hand and said he did not care what I did, that I would always be his little angel."

"Did he often call you angel?"

"Nearly always."

Mrs. Thaw said she met Harry several weeks later on the street. "He came up to me," she said, "and said I was looking badly. I told him I had not been well. He told me I should not put rouge on my cheeks, as it was not becoming to a girl of my type. I said I had put some on because I was so pale. I then met him upon the street one day, but he only bowed. The next time I saw him was at the Cafe Beaux Arts. I was invited to dine there with another girl and found Mr. Thaw one of the party. I told Mr. Thaw I was going back on the stage. He said I was looking badly and he would pay anything to keep me off the stage. I met him again a few days later with the same girl at the same restaurant. He asked me to tell him all about the stories. I told them all, the story of the girl in the bathtub, tying a girl to the bedpost and whipping her, and I told him all the stories that friends of Mr. White had told me; that Mr. Thaw took morphine and that it was while he was under the influence of the morphine that he did those awful things."

About Morphine.

"We said he understood why these stories had been told to me, as White and the men who told them hated him." He asked me if I ever saw him take morphine and I said I had not, and that I had told Mr. White that I never had seen him with a hypodermic syringe.

"After that I saw Mr. Thaw often. One day I found the man who had told me of having been at a hotel one night and hearing screams in a room, he broke in and said he found Mr. Thaw whipping a girl who was tied to a bedpost. I asked him to tell me the story again and he did so. But his story this time was that it was a waiter who saw the incident. It was different than the original story. I asked him 'Why' and he said 'I told you that to please somebody.'"

Mrs. Thaw said she finally told Mr. Thaw that she could find nothing in the stories that had been told her about him.

Attorney On Stand.

"What did Thaw then say to you?"

"He said it was all right. 'You know I never lie to you' he said."

Mrs. Thaw said she saw Harry Thaw the night of Christmas eve, in 1903, at the Madison Square theater.

Mrs. Thaw was here directed to step aside temporarily to allow the testimony of Frederick W. Longfellow to whom Thaw's letters offered in evidence had been addressed.

Mr. Gleason examined the witness. He showed Mr. Longfellow the letters and asked if they had been received by him. Mr. Jerome objected to the testimony until the defense waived the right of professional privilege as between Mr. Longfellow as counsel and the defendant as a former client of the witness.

"I desire to cross examine this witness," said Mr. Jerome, "and as he was formerly counsel to Thaw I may —"

"I withdraw the question put to my brother," said Mr. Delmas. "Were you attorney for Thaw when you received this letter?" demanded Mr. Jerome.

"Yes."

Letter Received.

"Did you receive it in your professional capacity?"

The witness examined the letter closely.

"I presume the letter came to me in a professional capacity," answered Mr. Longfellow.

"Have you the envelope of this letter?"

"I think not, the envelope probably was destroyed."

"You have made no search?"

"No."

"While there is doubt as to the existence of the envelope of a letter which may come by mail, no other evidence upon the point can be received," ruled Justice Fitzgerald.

"But," argued Mr. Delmas, "I have asked the witness to state from memory whether he received the letter previous to June 25, 1906."

"You may answer that," said the judge.

"Yes, two years before," said Mr. Longfellow.

On cross-examination Mr. Jerome drew from the witness that he had refreshed his memory from a letter book in the office.

"Was that a usual thing to do with professional relations with clients?"

"Not altogether," said the witness.

Mr. Jerome withdrew objection as to the letter which had been shown the witness for identification.

ADJOURNMENT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Court adjourned at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Thaw still on the stand.

VACCINATION BILLS COME UP FRIDAY

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 7.—The subject of anti-vaccination will come up in the Assembly next Friday morning, and, at that time consideration will be given to the bills by Eshelman of Berkeley and Sackett of Ventura. The former proposes to prevent vaccination being made a condition precedent to the admission to the public schools of the State and the latter aims at the repeal of the general law on vaccination. Of course, the Sackett bill goes a great deal further than the Eshelman measure and there seems to be a feeling that it will serve the purpose in view. There will be a fight made on both bills in each house by several members who are physicians, but it is believed that there is a preponderance of votes in the legislature in favor of removing all reference to vaccination from the statute books.

PROTECTING EMPLOYEES FROM LOAN SHARKS

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 7.—There will be a great deal of satisfaction among the employees of the city of Oakland over the fact that Senator Leavitt of that city has secured the passage of his bill numbered 101, which will have the effect of rendering it unnecessary for those employees to pay tribute to money sharks before they can receive even a part of the salary for which they are working. This bill requires the city auditor to set aside a sufficient amount of money to pay in full the monthly salary of every city employee, which has not been the case for a long time. As a consequence, policemen, firemen and clerks in the several departments of the city and various cities have been compelled to pay a liberal commission to money-lenders for accommodations every month, something which is not a private concern. Senator Leavitt spoke earnestly on the subject and the measure went through the Senate without an objection note. The bill has gone to the Assembly.

JUDGE TAPPAN SUPPORTS BILL

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 7.—Justice Tappan of Alameda appeared before the committee on judiciary of the Assembly today for the purpose of urging the passage of a bill prepared by him which has been introduced into both houses and which takes the selection of jurors from the policemen and the constables and places it in the hands of the justice of the peace. The same authority is given to a township justice whose jurisdiction is either wholly or in part within incorporated cities. The judge's idea is that the justice should be allowed to select one hundred or more of citizens of the place and put them in a box and from those names select whatever number may be required for the conduct of the trial. He said in support of the measure that constables and policemen are often bribed and are ordered to secure a jury generally selected the same kind of riff raff for trial after trial. The justice on the other hand was responsible to the people and would be more likely to select a better class of citizens and that there would be a better chance for justice. The bill does not seem to find favor with the committee.

WILD CAT GOES AFTER PET DOG

Two Berkeley Residents Have an Exciting Experience in the Hills.

BERKELEY, Feb. 7.—J. McFarlane of 5808 Park street and Thomas Nealon of 1100 University avenue, Berkeley, had an exciting adventure in the hills back of the University grounds yesterday morning.

A huge wildcat seized the small pet dog which had accompanied them, and Nealon, to save the dog's life, assailed the beast with a club. In killing the animal Nealon had his clothes torn and his arms scratched by the enraged wildcat. It was finally dispatched.

Few wildcats are now to be seen in the Berkeley hills, although a few years ago the woods were infested with them.

EAGLES HAVE A GOOD PLAY

First Night at Alameda Theater Is an Unusual Success for Production.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 7.—The first night of the Eagles' entertainment was a great success. The Park Theater was crowded with an exceptional audience. The original one-act play, by Frank I. Macaulay, a well known member of the local press, was a great hit and was heartily applauded. The show is to continue tonight and tomorrow night.

DEBATING SOCIETY TO MEET TONIGHT

BERKELEY, Feb. 7.—There will be a meeting of the 1907 debating society of the University of California at 7:30 in room 104 of California Hall. This meeting will be for the purpose of a reunion and reorganization of the sophomore debaters. It is requested that every one be present. Some money is left over in the treasury, and this will probably be used for a feed some time next week.

SHANNON WANTS GOOD MEN

Charges Expense of State Printing Office to Poor Journeymen.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 7.—There was a lengthy session of the ways and means committee of the assembly for the purpose of hearing an explanation from State Printer Shannon as to the alleged excessive cost of conducting his office.

Mr. Shannon said that it was impossible for him to turn out work as cheaply as he would like to because the season of activity in the printing office was irregular. He couldn't get good compositors. As a consequence there was a loss of time, a loss of energy and at the same time an increase of expense which was to be regretted. The subjects which Mr. Shannon responded to were suggested by Assemblyman Jury of San Mateo.

PRIVATE AND PUBLIC.

Jury said a departmental head who had asked for $6000 appropriation for departmental printing had said that with $5000 he could get a private concern to do the work and a great deal more, while the State printer said it would cost $6000.

Shannon said he did not think the work could be done for $5000. Jury also showed that the biennial report of the State Board of Health, to print, had cost $857.50 and then produced figures to show that a private concern agreed to do the work for $335. This difference in cost was charged to poor workmen.

Jury also brought up a case where Shannon is alleged to have given an estimate of cost of a certain piece of work as $2700 and later to have reduced the estimate to $1700.

COST OF BRIEFS.

It was shown that the printing of legal briefs for the attorney-general cost $1.25 per page, whereas Crocker and other firms charged only 60 or 75 cents. When asked why there should be such a difference, Shannon said that $1.25 was the price established by the office.

GETTING PAPER.

In the matter of receiving a supply of paper from Zellerbach or Crocker, Shannon said that if he should give an order for 500 reams and should receive only 250 reams he would charge the firm with 250 and credit it with the same amount.

Of the $5000 appropriated by the last legislature for blanks for the opening of this session, Shannon said that the blanks furnished had cost only $1700. The rest of the money had been spent in other ways.

Jury also stated he had seen a ledger at the Industrial Blind Home in Oakland for which the State printing office had charged $16. Jury said a similar ledger could be bought here for $7.50. The book was not made by the State printer.

Shannon admitted that he had sold a $6000 press to ex-Senator Prisk of Grass Valley for $400; another press to Johnson of the city for $50 and another $6000 press to his father for $200. He stated, however, that these presses were old, had been condemned and had to be thrown out in order to make room for new presses. He also stated that if he could get four more type machines he could do a great deal more work.

SOLON FORCED TO TAKE SEAT

Senator Caminetti Is Ordered to Sit Down by Sergeant-at-Arms.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 7.—Held's constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to enact a direct primary law, which was passed by the assembly several days ago, was today adopted by the senate after the most acrimonious debate that has taken place on the senate floor at this session of the legislature.

The trouble started over amendments offered by Senator Caminetti, who wanted to include provisions for the election of United States senators by direct vote, which was opposed by Senators Wolfe, Leavitt, Wright and others.

Because it was alleged that he had insulted the majority by stating that they represented "king caucus" and "king machine," and not the rank and file of the Republican party, and were refusing to carry out the wishes of the people, Senator Caminetti was finally refused recognition and the sergeant-at-arms was ordered to compel him to take his seat.

JNO. A. BRITTON ON TAXATION

Suggests Moderation in Move to Place Heavy Taxes on Corporations.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 7.—The committee on revenue and taxation of the Senate held an open meeting last night for the purpose of discussing the proposed amendment to the constitution providing for raising a revenue for the support of the State by the separation of State from municipal taxes.

There was a large attendance of legislators and citizens and there were also present representatives of corporations in various parts of the State. Among the latter mentioned were W. E. Dunn, of the Hamilton railway system, Los Angeles; L. Selig, of the Edison Company, of Los Angeles; John A. Britton, of the Edison Company in the north, as also the Pacific and Electric Company of San Francisco; A. Pillsbury, of San Francisco; Dr. Moore, of San Francisco, and others.

Senator McCartney of Los Angeles occupied the chair.

Professor Plehn of the University of California, who has been at the head of the movement, explained the purpose of the commission and the amendment which was to be submitted to the people.

LOSSES ONE-THIRD.

Senator Willis of San Bernardino said the proposed system would reduce the company of one-third of its yearly revenue.

Both Professor Plehn and Senator Curran (the latter also a member of the commission), admitted this fact, and the Senator stated that he thought a remedy could be provided for the complaint.

Mr. Dunn said that he admired the principle of the amendment, but it would cost his company $200,000.

A. Pillsbury said that if every State did the same to corporations that it was proposed to do by this amendment to taxation, it would mean confiscation.

Grove L. Johnson intimated that some of the features of the amendment were unconstitutional.

Dr. Moore said the amendment would be oppressive to insurance companies. All of these people were questioned at times by Senator McCartney, who was interrogated in turn by them. The result was that a great deal of information on the subject was obtained.

JOHN A. BRITTON.

John A. Britton of Oakland said that he would confine his remarks to the effect of the proposed law on light, heat and power companies. Personally, he had some apprehension of the effect of the commission, because it would enable his companies to learn what was going on in the market made on them by the taxing power.

He then told of the consolidation of companies north and south and how the State of California had been utilized to bring light, heat and power to this State at such reasonable prices which had been made on the basis of the tax.

EQUITABLE OR INEQUITABLE.

The question was whether the tax proposed was equitable or inequitable. The tax, he thought, should be based on the value of the property owned and also be considered the amount of business in which the company was engaged.

Municipalities had assumed the right to regulate the rates for lighting, which the speaker thought, was permissible. He thought that the State should regulate the rates at which power should be sold. He did not think that such a regulation was legal.

LOSE REVENUE.

The effect of the regulating of rates on gas, light and heat companies would be different from that upon other corporations. If the rates should be lowered, the demand would be increased and there would be an augmentation of revenue without a corresponding increase of expense. The law which would fix the rates ought also protect the corporation whose rates it thus controlled.

TAXES DOUBLED.

He knew that under the proposed amendment the tax of the companies he represented would be doubled, but there was a further increase because power companies were compelled to secure sites in the mountains, at considerable expense, which at the same time was considered as necessary to the business. His company was paying taxes on a 60 per cent valuation of their property now, and last year the company had paid in taxes $214,000. That was on a 2 per cent tax. Under the proposed tax, which would be 4 per cent, they would have to double the amount of that tax.

COST OF OIL.

Mr. Britton said that oil had greatly entered into the cost of producing gas and power. It cost twice as much more than it did before the fire and was about to become dearer. Gas companies did not know what materials were going to cost tomorrow.

LIGHT WASTED.

Mr. Britton then took up the superabundance of artificial light supplied by the companies, and commented upon the waste of the same for improvement in machinery and buildings, and had employed hundreds and thousands of workmen to who had paid the highest wages demanded by labor unions, and yet it had never questioned the value placed on its plant by the assessor. It would be a waste of money to ask him how the assessment was based on a 60 per cent valuation of the property. The assessor said that it would exceed that amount. His company never requested any reduction in its assessment, never appealed to the Board of Equalization and never went on the basis of depreciated property.

BE CONSIDERATE.

In conclusion Mr. Britton said he hoped the commission would proceed cautiously and at the outset not injure its cause by becoming oppressive on the people who were bringing millions here annually, and who were doing all they could to develop the State.

The meeting then adjourned.

TRACT FOR POWER PLANT

The Southern Pacific Company has bought a tract of land near Fruitvale avenue for the purpose of establishing a big power plant for its local electric lines when the steam roads are changed.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 7.—The Assembly gave an emphatic rebuke to the gun clubs of Los Angeles county, which have established preserves for the pleasure of their members in Orange county.

Leeds of Los Angeles sought to amend Esudillo's bill, No. 40, which makes it a misdemeanor to allow artesian wells to remain uncapped when their waters are not being used for irrigation, the propagation of fish, domestic or other beneficial purposes, by allowing those waters to flow into ponds for the decoying of ducks to be slaughtered by the members of the exclusive sporting clubs in question.

The amendment was defeated, and the bill was carried by a vote of 61-45 to 124, the latter vote being that of Leeds, who framed the amendment.

EFFECTIVE SPEECHES.

Estudillo of Riverside and Bishop of Santa Ana were really eloquent in setting forth the necessity for the conservation of the waters of the southern part of the State, and trembled with emotion when they spoke of the reckless manner in which the gun clubs—composed of wealthy men of Los Angeles, who had nothing else to do—descended upon Orange county, outraged the feelings of the people of that section, got into legal controversies with them and recklessly allowed artesian water to go to waste, while, at the same time, they flagrantly slew game of all kinds.

DUCKS OR CHILDREN.

"If," continued Estudillo, "the amendment be adopted, you will rob us of the lifeblood of the southern part of the State, simply to enable the owners of an artesian well to prevent the destruction of harmless fowls. The farms and orchards and ranches may grow dry and wither, but the sportsmen must have their brandy pleasure. If this amendment is adopted, there will be in the south no more merry laughter of beautiful children, but, instead, the quacking of ducks, the crack of the shotguns and the popping of champagne corks." (Applause.)

EFFECT OF MEASURE.

The law, if enforced, will give a blow to duck-slaughter in ponds, but Leeds says it will only have the effect of sending the matter to the courts for adjudication, as he claims the owner of an artesian well cannot be prevented from using the flow of that well for any purpose which he may desire.

FORCE USED TO REMOVE FIRST WARD DELEGATES FROM FLOOR

STORMY SCENES AT LABOR CONVENTION

Mayor Mott Named Party Platform Is Adopted After Discussion. Fraud Charges at the Primaries Are Sustained.

The city convention of the Union Labor party at Germania hall last evening was marked by some stormy scenes. Before B. B. Booth, chairman of the city central committee, called the convention to order, it was whispered around the hall that trouble was brewing, and many of the delegates feared that the gathering would dissolve without doing any business.

The chief trouble in the convention was due to the methods adopted in the election of the first ward delegation at the primaries, the city clerk having made the return that the ticket headed by Charles Sinclair had received a majority of the votes cast.

But a charge was put in early that Sinclair and his delegation had been chosen by fraud and a protest was lodged against their being allowed to hold their seats, which protest prevailed when it was carried before the committee on credentials.

REMOVED FROM FLOOR.

Sinclair and his associates, amid much turmoil and violent protest and calls for Sinclair's arrest, were finally removed from the floor and their rivals installed as the accredited delegates to the convention.

The next rock on which the convention threatened to split was on the question of nominations. One faction suspected the existence of a slate and pleaded for either a straight union labor ticket from top to bottom or none at all.

A motion was, therefore, made to adjourn sine die, without making any nominations or doing any other business; but the proposition was overwhelmingly out-voted.

The convention was called to order about 9 o'clock by Chairman Booth and L. T. Stevenson of the Minutemen's Union, Local 610, was chosen temporary chairman and Martin Rogers temporary secretary, and G. M. MacFadden assistant secretary. These were subsequently made the permanent officers of the convention.

REBOLIT PROTESTS.

When the committees were about to be appointed, J. B. Rebolt of the Third ward protested against any representation from the First ward delegation on the committees, on the ground that its members had secured their seats by fraud.

Chair of the First protested vociferously against such a charge being made, asserting that he and his associates had been "elected at the primaries by the people," and "we propose to stay here."

Pettit of the First ward, amid cries of "Good boy," said he was satisfied that his name was not regularly on the ticket elected and he desired to withdraw.

Rebolt protested against any of the members of the First ward delegation being allowed to sit in the convention.

Sinclair denounced the protestant, and when declared out of order by the chair denounced the chairman as a "bully" and refused to surrender the floor. He was, however, placated when given to understand that he would have a hearing before the committee on credentials.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

The latter consisted of the following appointees: First ward, J. M. Mooker; Second ward, P. J. Whelan; Third ward, J. B. Rebolt; Fourth ward, P. B. Preble; Fifth ward, B. B. Booth (chairman); Sixth ward, Warren McGowan; Seventh ward, B. Hanley.

The committee on order of business consisted of F. R. Preble, R. H. Hamb, Edward McGuire, B. B. Feiton, M. F. Murray, A. F. Erickson, W. E. Adams. The following were appointed to the committee on platform and resolutions: L. Burchall, H. E. Hahn, P. S.

REPORT TO UNSEAT.

The committee on credentials reported unanimously in favor of unseating Charles A. Sinclair and his delegation on the ground of fraud, which after taking testimony the committee was convinced had been committed, and seating in their stead H. Wilson, Ben Byron, F. True and others on the same ticket at the primaries.

Then another stormy scene broke out, as a sequel to which two sergeants-at-arms had to be appointed to forcibly eject Charles A. Sinclair from the floor of the hall, and the aid of the police had subsequently to be solicited to subdue his disposition to disturb the peace of the convention.

Before the report of the committee on order of business was adopted, Rebolt of the Third moved an amendment that "we adjourn sine die."

McGuire of the Seventh favored the amendment on the ground that the rock on which every reform movement had hitherto been wrecked was that of endorsing the candidates of some other party.

STRAIGHT UNION TICKET.

He believed the convention should name a straight union labor ticket or none at all. A straight ticket at the last election would have had a chance to win, as it was it was snowed under. Endorsement, he maintained, would wreck the Union Labor party.

After some discussion pro and con, the vote on the amendment stood ayes 16, nays 110.

THE PARTY PLATFORM.

The report of the committee on order of business was adopted, and so was the following platform:

THE PLATFORM.

The following was the platform adopted: "First—Believing it necessary in the interests of good government that a Union Labor party be organized composed of strictly honest, capable and efficient men of wide experience, unfettered by any corrupting political or corporate influence, the Union Labor party pledges its candidates to a wise and economical expenditure of the people's money for the best interests of the city."

"Second—In view of the fact that the city of Oakland is rapidly attaining a commanding position in point of population and commercial activity and should take such governmental action as will give to our city all persons seeking homes surrounded with industrial advantages and municipal improvements, we declare in favor of the immediate improvement of our streets, and that a new city hall, adequate for the needs of the business of the municipality should be erected and that the improvement of streets and the erection of a new city hall is of the utmost importance to the taxpayers of this city, and we therefore pledge our candidates to use their best endeavors to further these improvements."

"Third—We declare in favor of public ownership of what is commonly termed public utilities. The most powerful lever by which public servants have been moved aside from the true path of duty and private parties enabled to take more than their just and rightful share from industry has been the influence of private capital vested in public utilities. In order that this may not continue and that the temptation may be removed from the way of all servants of government of whatever party, that the patrons of the various natural monopolies may have their needs ministered to at the lowest reasonable figure, we propose to do our utmost to lawfully place in the hands of the various municipal, city, state and federal governments, these necessities, such as water works, street railways and telephone systems."

"Fourth—Realizing the fact that no city on the Pacific Coast can claim greater facilities for the establishment of manufactures and other industries, we believe that every inducement should be offered and every effort made by the mercantile interests of our city towards the establishment of such industries in our midst and therefore pledge our individual efforts to the accomplishment of this end."

"We pledge our candidates to unite with the merchants and labor bodies of our city in the furtherance of any plan whereby the interests of our city will be enhanced and home industries fostered."

"Fifth—There is no one who knows the needs of the people so well as themselves, if these needs are embodied in legislation and referred back to them there is no one who knows better than they whether it be satisfactory and adapted to the demands of life. Hence we believe that the common people should be the last and final legislators and we endorse the initiative and referendum as the one and only means by which the public will can be brought into law."

"We therefore demand a submission to the voters of California, and the nation of an amendment to the constitution providing for majority rule by the initiative and referendum as to statute law and likewise the initiative and referendum for constitutional law. The percentage of voters to initiate legislation shall not exceed eight per cent of those who voted at the last election for governor and to invoke the referendum upon all statutes except ordinary appropriation acts and laws for the preservation of the peace, safety and health of the public."

"Sixth—That upon all public work where labor is employed either by the city or contractors doing work for the city, the preference shall be given to home labor, and each contract so entered into shall contain a clause that eight hours shall constitute a day's labor, and we pledge our candidates to a rigid enforcement of the same."

"Seventh—We favor the adoption of a system whereby differences arising between employer and employee may be peacefully adjusted by arbitration on the principle of laissez-faire, which we believe will be for the best interests of all parties concerned, and we request our candidates to investigate all existing forms of arbitration which seek to establish such a system in order that the best may be adopted."

"Eighth—We are in favor of recognizing, as far as possible, in public employment (qualifications being equal) those who have served as volunteers in the United States army and who have been honorably discharged therefrom."

"Ninth—We declare that a tax upon property in the city of Oakland for State, county and city purposes, amounting to nearly three per cent on each $100 of assessed value, is burdensome and excessive, and we pledge our nominees to take such action as will relieve the taxpayers from such large outlay for taxable purposes."

ORGANIZATION.

"Tenth—This is an age of organization. By that means only can the working people protect their interests, by their organizations in the form of unions or political parties. As we would see the efforts of the toilers protected we declare this party irrevocably opposed to any discrimination against organized labor, particularly against the employment of those who shall use all reasonable efforts to see that it is given equal protection to that rendered organized capital through the enactment and administration of the proper laws."

"We demand that all Asiatic immigration be restricted, as it brings to the United States a class inferior to the white race. The Asiatic has a far lower standard of life than we; he has not awakened to class consciousness and consequently is a continual drawback to social progress. An insufficiently restricted immigration of these men from China would create an insupportable condition; we consequently place the Union Labor party squarely against any modification of the present Chinese exclusion law and against any law in favor of unrestricted immigration of Japanese to our shores."

"We demand that schools of sufficient number, capacity and proper equipment be built to accommodate all children of school age in the State and that all furnishing and apparatus shall be purchased in California when possible to do so. We demand that the first text book be given to every student in institutions of public instruction in the State of California."

"We demand that in making courses of study our boards of education shall outline them in a manner practical rather than theoretical; hence we pledge our nominees who have to do with education to an earnest endeavor to provide for manual training and industrial education, and furthermore we insist that the instructors in such schools shall be persons of practical experience as well as theoretical."

"Eleventh—Whereas, the decision of the United States Court of Appeals with reference to the water front is a declaration of emancipation from corporate control of the principal factor in the commercial and industrial development of Oakland; and WATER FRONT.

"Whereas, the injudicious and unwise, and at times hasty, action on the part of the legislative bodies of this city in the matter of early legislation concerning this water front has retarded the growth of the city of Oakland and imperiled the ownership by the people of these most valuable lands and placed in the hands of private corporations the water front, property which never should have been permitted and should never be permitted to pass from the control of the State of California or the city of Oakland; therefore be it

"Resolved by the Union Labor party in convention assembled, that we pledge our candidates to the utmost caution and the exercise of the greatest prudence and foresight in all matters and dealings pertaining to the water front and legislation incidental thereto, and that it is the sense of this convention that at the present time no legislation be enacted by the State legislature and that whatever legislation is proposed in the future to be enacted that the municipal authorities of the city of Oakland be first made acquainted therewith to the end that the rights of the people shall be forever protected."

"We do not favor the indiscriminate association of Chinese and Japanese with our children in the public schools, and believe that this most important question of whether or not Japanese children should attend the public schools together with our children is a matter that the people most affected should decide, and that the same should be left for discussion to the people of the State of California."

The committee also submitted a resolution favoring increased pay to the mail carriers, which was unanimously adopted.

NOMINATIONS FOR MAYOR.

Nominations for mayor being in order, Frank K. Mott's name was offered amid loud cheering. J. B. Bowen was nominated, but positively declined. P. S. Gillette was named and declined. Then a motion prevailed to leave the office of mayor blank on the ticket.

For city attorney J. E. McElroy received the unanimous vote of the convention. So did the following nominees: For city engineer, F. C. Turner; city auditor, George Gross; treasurer, R. B. Ayer.

At this juncture Murray of the Fourth ward obtained a reconsideration of the vote to leave the office of mayor blank and he and others made eloquent appeals in behalf of Frank K. Mott, whose administration was pronounced to be without a blemish.

MOTT IS NAMED.

Reconsideration carried and amid great enthusiasm Frank K. Mott was made the convention's choice for mayor.

Councilmen-at-large were nominated as follows: H. C. Burns, George D. Fitzgerald, D. B. Staackler, Dr. F. S. Jackson.

Only one school director-at-large was nominated, namely, B. E. Rogers. The other nominees were left for the city central committee to select. The same course was followed regarding the library trustees and the Second, Third and Fifth ward councilmen Alexander Meghanhan was nominated for councilman from the First ward.

MRS. LONGWORTH IS LEFT OUT IN COUNT

"How many children are in the family of the President?" one child asked another. "We were all able to hear, as we huddled together in a stenchful passenger elevator car." The person addressed replied: "Hanged if I know, but I'm sure there are as many as five." "How do you know that?" "Because one of the boys is named 'Quentin'." "What has that got to do with it?" "Why, 'Quentin' means 'a fifth child.'" And these few remarks set a lot of people thinking. Quentin is the baby of the Roosevelt household. He is in reality the sixth child of the President, but it is possible that in naming his children our Chief Magistrate discriminated between his two wives. By his first wife he had a daughter—now Mrs. Alice Longworth. His second wife has borne him five children, to-wit: Theodore, Jr., Ethel, Kermit, Archibald and Quentin. So, in the general count, Mrs. Longworth is left out—New York Press.

IN GOOD OLD DAYS.

In Washington, Ga., the first town in America named for the father of his country, lived Gen. Robert Toombs, one of the brilliant lights of hospitality in a country where social instinct is second to nature.

A committee once waited on Gen. Toombs to consult him about erecting a hotel in the town. "We have no need of one," said Gen. Toombs, simply. "When respectable people come here they can stay at my house. If they are not respectable we do not want them at all."—Youth's Companion.

It saves many steps if, when putting dishes away, you carry them to the china closet in a tray, as it accommodates many more dishes than one can carry in the hands. A tray should be used also when removing them from the table. This is so frequently neglected and so many extra steps have to be taken that it is worthy of being mentioned.

E. B. Harm from the Fourth; W. J. Eacuss from the Sixth and G. E. Aiken from the Seventh. For school directors: First ward, W. B. Moody; Second ward, Dr. Pratt; Fourth ward, L. B. Stevenson; Sixth ward, C. M. Conners; Seventh ward, Dr. James Plunkett. The Third and Fifth ward nominations were left to the central committee to fill.

CITY COMMITTEE.

The new city central committee was appointed as follows: First ward, W. B. Sinclair, M. P. Manning, J. Bolan; Second ward—P. P. Poormap, Ed. Coughlin, R. M. Hamb; Third ward, passed; Fourth ward—Dignon, Giguere and Felton; Fifth ward—G. W. Saacke, P. Higuera, M. P. Murray; Sixth ward—Dr. C. Crawford, George Lucas, T. J. Hopkins; Seventh ward—N. E. Adams, A. R. Cordan, John McNeice.

The appointment of a purity committee was left to the city central committee, and the convention adjourned sine die.

CLOSING DAYS OF FRIEDMAN'S CLEARANCE

$40, $30, $20 Coats

Now $10.00

The weather the past month has been the severest Oakland has ever experienced, people not daring to venture out, and others laid up with colds could not take advantage of Friedman's big sale. We will make additional big cuts in the prices of Tourist Coats, to close out the entire line. We positively lose from 25 to 50 per cent on the cost of each coat, but we are better satisfied to give the customer the benefit of a bargain than keep up the price and pay it out for printer's ink, for we gain that woman's everlasting friendship. This is all we ask—HER FRIENDSHIP.

This lot comprises genuine imported Scotch goods, Irish tweeds, English worsteds, hard and soft finished twills, serges, covets, chevots and cravenet cloth, in blues, grays, greens and light and dark mixtures, tans, reds, etc. The styles are short, medium and long lengths in loose, tight, box, half-fitting, empire and mannish effects. Some plain, others becomingly trimmed. The qualities are genuine wools, guaranteed, for every day use all the year round—driving, automobile, walking and traveling, for rain or shine. Sizes, styles and colors for young or old.

When we positively state that these coats have always sold in our stock from $20.00 to $40.00 and that we will now clear each and every one out at $10.00 each, it will be hardly believable, but investigate and bear in mind the name of the house that never has and never will deceive.

22 Per Cent

$8,000 Here's one of the best buys we have on our list. Not far from the center of the city—near 38th street between Grove St. and Telegraph Ave. Within two blocks of the Key Route. Three brand new flats, modern in every way, nothing lacking. The 50 x 134 ft. lot is worth $2,500 alone. The price is $8,000. Rented for $100 a month, means 15 per cent on your money; or you can pay $4,000 down, carry $4,000 and still make 22 per cent. You couldn't ask for anything better.

Besides there is ample room on which to build a five room cottage.

Think quick if you want it. This property is getting more valuable every day.

$44,000 3-story building full basement less than one year old. Located 1 1/2 blocks from 11th and Broadway. Leased for three years at an average rental of $460 per month net. The location of this property guarantees its steady increase in value and at the same time brings a handsome income on the investment. The building being new, no repairs will be necessary for many years. Being inside the fire limit, surrounding improvements must all be made of brick, which is very advantageous to this property. Call at our office and let us show you this substantial investment. The property will carry a large amount of time will be given for search of title.

$12,500 Only $250 per foot for the ground on Sixteenth street between Jefferson and Castro streets, and we throw in the improvements. Owner of ground one block east of this refused $500 per foot. This is absolutely one of the best little buys to be had. Right near the liveliest part of the city, (4 blocks from San Pablo) where values are going up every day. The ground, 50 x 100, is cheap for the money asked, besides there is a very good 10 room house on it that is rented for $75 per month.

Put money into secure investments—investments that will bring handsome incomes. The M. T. Minney Co. is the avenue through which to find gilt-edge paying properties—protecting your interests to the smallest detail, for this Company either owns or has exclusive control of every lot, residence or business property on its list.

Get Your Money "Working", don't Keep It "Stowed" Away

$225,000

For a Broadway corner, 100 feet square, well up in the business center; tenants are ready to make new leases at $18,000 per year, this will pay 6 3/4% net; improvements are two-story and well built, stores below and 30 office rooms above; full cemented basement that could be remodeled into stores, building so constructed that two more stories could be added. We know of no better opportunity for a substantial investment. $100,000 of the purchase price can remain at 5%.

SECURE INVESTMENTS

Increasing in Value

$37,500 Improvements going on all around this property. Every day makes this piece more valuable. 60 days from now will show a great change in this part of the downtown section. The building of the new Orpheum Theater alone means much. For a real live investment and a "bang-up" money maker, is a combination that will interest the shrewdest investor, and the price now is only $37,500.

Splendid Profit Producer

$14,300 A four flat building in fine condition. This property is a great "snap" on Eighth street. Location insures permanent occupancy—always in demand. No losses here. Tenants pay promptly.

$18,500 Here is a dandy, right in the center of activity, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third on San Pablo; will be worth $25,000 within six months. ground 27 1/2 by 120 feet, with 2-story buildings bringing in fair income under old lease that will soon expire; hurry if you want this one.

WORTH MORE MONEY

$13,000 We have the exclusive control, and know it's worth more right now, and will increase in value. large grounds, 100 by 100 feet, and well improved; located at the junction 34th st., Linden and San Pablo. Would cost more than double the money to build the house at the present time. It's a splendid "buy." Terms can be arranged.

A GOOD MONEY-MAKER

$37,500 A splendid income can be derived from an investment like this one. Right in the "heart" of Oakland—Harrison and sixth Sts. Improvements three two-story flat buildings, total number of rooms, 50. 10,000 square feet of ground not entirely covered. Think of $420 a month revenue on a $37,500 investment; nothing to equal it on the coast. This is worthy of the closest inspection.

QUICK TURN ON THIS

$3,200 A great big corner lot, 50 by 168, and a splendid 6-room house, on 62nd st. 1 block from San Pablo. Only takes a small amount to "cinch" this bargain, if you want to hold it, balance can be paid in small amount by the month. A good opportunity for a quick "turn," and make a nice profit. The M. T. Minney Co. list a great number of just such "snaps." This particular property is offered at a close figure.

PUBLIC FEELS RESENTFUL

But Best Informed Japs Are
Unconcerned in Present Trouble.

TOKIO Feb 7 evening—The Hochi Shimbun, which has been the most outspoken of Japanese papers in expressing indignation at the action of the San Francisco authorities in the case of the Japanese fishing boats, has today published a long article in which it criticizes the action of the Japanese government in the case of the Japanese fishing boats.

The general attitude of the American government is thought to be absolutely necessary at this moment to keep strict guard lest it play into the hands of the party which is endeavoring to utilize the San Francisco affair to alienate both nations. Japan remembers gratefully its obligation towards the United States but it is mistaken to think that the doctrine exists forbidding total antagonism against its behavior under any circumstances.

SORRY NOW SHE WROTE

Woman Editor Put Thing Too
Strongly in Treble Clef
Article.

BERKELEY, Feb 7—So keen has been the resentment shown by the members of the Treble Clef club against the editorial in the Oakland Tribune by Miss Irma Well, the editor of the women's department, that Miss Well is reported to have told a number of the girls of the musical society that she was sorry she mentioned the matter at all. She is reported to have said that she did not know that the Treble Clef belonged to the association of women students.

Miss Alice Weymouth made a statement to a TRIBUNE reporter this morning, as follows:

"Miss Well was entirely misinformed as to the position the Treble Clef occupies in the university. The Treble Clef is associated with the Affiliated Women Students just as much as the English Club, of which Miss Well is a prominent member, is with the university. Last year 'The Maneuvers of Jane' was presented by the English club at the Macdonough theater in Oakland and was generally regarded by the students as an unsuccessful affair. After this show had been given, as also that of the Mask and Dagger Club, an opera was presented by the Treble Clef. This opera had a packed house, and Professor Arneson of the English department of the university, who is now in Europe, then said that the Treble Clef show was without doubt the best amateur show that had ever been given by the university students. Miss Well is inspired by fear that a Treble Clef show will detract from the show that is to be given by the English Club. She has been retracting some of her statements, and has told the girls that she did not mean to put things so strongly."

"The members of the Treble Clef intend to proceed with the preparations for the opera, in spite of the open enemy shown by the English club, and while they are not primarily a dramatic organization, they believe that their opera will be a legitimate production for the participation of the girl students."

Miss Dolly Trost said to a TRIBUNE reporter that the argument of Miss Well to the effect that a better opera could be seen for the same price at Idora Park was not to the point. She said that the same thing could be said of any play given by the English club and any of the class burlesques or the junior farce. She said that the people who went to see university shows did not buy their tickets with the intention of seeing a high-class show, but with a personal interest in those who take part.

ON TRIAL FOR ROBBING A SLEEPER

Francisco Patas is being tried by a jury in Judge Waste's court today for stealing a five-dollar gold piece from the pocket of Charles A. Knudsen, a painter, residing at 952 Fifty-fifth street. Knudsen claims that he drew $10 out of a bank and, after being around with the boys and having been released from the city prison where he was detained until he partially sobered up, went to the park on Harrison street for a little nap. While asleep he claims that he was robbed of the $5 upon awaking, he saw that Patas was being held by several men who noticed the alleged crime. A charge of grand larceny was made against the defendant on December 3 and since that time he has been in jail.

CONVICT MAY NOT TESTIFY

Jim Crowhurst Refuses to Tell Story in Case Against Pembroke.

George B. Ingersoll was the first witness to take the stand in the Pembroke trial this morning. "Pop" Ingersoll, who is the private detective to District Attorney Brown, told the jury that Edward Stanley could not be found. Stanley was the East Oakland barber who was held up and robbed by the boy bandits. The witness has left the State and is unable to testify, so his testimony in the police court will have to be used in the trial by a jury before Judge J. D. Murphy in department five of the Superior Court.

MAY NOT TELL.

Jim Crowhurst, the young fellow who is now in Volson prison serving seven years for the robbery of Stanley, is said to have made a refusal to testify in this trial. Crowhurst implicated Pembroke in the Stanley robbery when he pleaded guilty and was sentenced.

The complete jury is composed of the following:

W. H. Morrison, Peter Von Ah, R. F. Phillips, W. K. McKee, John C. Stanley, Edwin T. Stevenson, David McCarron, Thomas Lawlor, J. L. Carson, W. N. Halbert, Robert Turnbull and F. L. Corryell.

HAS DIVORCE AND ALIMONY

Alameda Detective Must Pay $40
a Month to Wife and Children.

Judge Harris granted an interlocutory decree of divorce this morning to Callista E. Brown from George H. Brown, an Alameda detective. The contest arose over the amount of alimony that would be paid to the wife, who asked for $50 a month. Brown said that he would throw up his job and leave town before he would meet such a demand. The matter was disposed of when a stipulation was reached by which Mrs. Brown will receive $40 a month for the support of herself and children.

Brown is a popular member of the Alameda Police Department and now on the detective force. The complaint stated that he received $100 a month salaries besides the dividend of a restaurant in which Mrs. Brown claims he is interested.

The couple was married in Walnut Creek, May 23, 1886.

NEW POLICEMAN USES HIS CLUB

Samuel Winslow of West Berkeley was another victim to the new club of a recently appointed policeman, for last night, as he was going along Broadway, the officer placed him under arrest, and in doing so struck Winslow over the head with his stick. Instead of taking the man to jail, he first had to be returned to the Receiving Hospital, where Warden Page stitched the two scalp wounds, one on the top of the head and the other on the man's forehead.

Several cases have come into the Receiving Hospital in the past few weeks where the patients have been injured by blows about the head from the clubs of new policemen.

Be Your Own Dealer

When you buy direct from a manufacturer you make a far greater saving than you could possibly make in buying at any cut-rate sale. It is not probable or possible for a dealer to cut these prices below what they pay manufacturers. That would mean ruin to them.

We are selling from our wholesale warehouses to our customers at the same price as we charge our dealers. If you pay any attention to so-called great reduction sales in pianos, that you can buy in any house at the usual terms, you will be misled. However, the usual method of this sort of advertising is to mark cheap pianos up and reduce them not even to their regular mark, but leave the price high enough to cover increased advertising expenses. And even if the dealer, who is not a manufacturer, was to try to give you a part of his profits he could not stay in business and compete with the manufacturer.

That is why we, although way out on Twentieth street, are selling more pianos from our wholesale warehouse than all the regular Oakland dealers. We would like to remind you that it would pay you to investigate.

We guarantee $100 to $150 saved on each purchase and four blocks would not be too far for a millionaire to walk to save this amount.

We have had seventeen wagon-loads of pianos taken in exchange on the marvel Heine Piano-Player in San Francisco, sent over last week. Our San Francisco stores have no room for them, as they carry new samples only. We are selling these pianos for what was allowed for them.

They are all in good order, some brand new.

FOUR-FLUSHING ABOUT FIGHT WITH ABE ATTELL

Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan Denies in the City of St. Louis That He Is to Re-enter the Ring.

By EDDIE SMITH.
Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan, the red-topped boxing instructor of the Missouri Athletic Club of St. Louis, is just back from a four-flush round fight with Abe Attell. Sullivan is the only man who has knocked Attell out since his debut into championship society, and is rated in some parts of the country as the premier featherweight of the country.

His money for a $10,000 purse is so ridiculous that it is not worthy of consideration. At St. Louis he denies that he has any intention of again fighting the little Hebrew, so it would appear that Tommy is after money and not fight.

GARDNER VS. MELLODY.
For some time there has been talk of Jimmy Gardner and Honey Melody coming together for the welterweight championship title. At present both are anxiously awaiting word from Mike Kelly as to their chances of being listed among the events that Kelly says he will put off at Tanquer.

NOVICE WHIPS FITZGERALD IN EAST

Willie Fitzgerald was decisively beaten at Bridgeport, Conn., last night by a practically unknown fighter, Nick Savers beating him so badly that the referee stopped the contest in the sixth round to save Fitzgerald being knocked out. Fitz evidently is going back when men like Savers can beat him. He refused a $2000 purse and expenses from Maryland to box Cyclone Johnny Thompson.

WEIGHT TOO MUCH FOR TILEING

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 7.—Owner McCormick asked too much of his heavy candidate, Tileing, yesterday when he sent him into the mile handicap at City Park, conceding victory in things to a field of older horses of some class. Although carrying 141 pounds, Tileing was the favorite. But he got a poor send-off, while Valentine and Ricker were away well. Valentine went on to the leaders at the head of the stretch, but when called upon in the home stretch, he failed. Valentine went on and was an easy winner. Bradley secured the second place, and the two-year-old event with his Star Shot-Marble. Black Mary, Blackie, and the rest of the talent, but Black Mary won by a head, going away.

KID SCALER IS LOOKING FOR MATCH

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE.—Dear Sir: I would be pleased to give a match for Kid Scaler in your city and in some time about the middle of next month, or later. Scaler is one of the best 125 pound men in the west, and I let him meet any good man of his weight in the business with no exception.

I should prefer a match for him with either Dick Hyland, Abe Attell, Harry Baker, or any man of this class. Scaler has never been whipped decisively. He has a twenty-round draw with Maurice Thompson, who is a twenty-five pounder. Scaler has won from Kid Oglesby, won from Kid Oglesby, 20 pounds; won from Kid Oglesby in two rounds; and a host of others.

NO FIRE-EATER

Honey Melody, although at one time recognized as the welterweight champion, is by no means a fire-eater. He has shown nothing in his previous fights that would lead one to believe him a world-beater, so the contest has all the indications of an even match, and really could do no worse than sign them.

JACK BLACKBURN.
Tom O'Rourke, one time manager of Joe Walcott and George Dixon, has taken Jack Blackburn, the colored welterweight, under his wing and will try to push him to the front. O'Rourke has had more success with colored men than any other manager in the business, and if there is any possible manner in which Blackburn can be brought into recognition, O'Rourke will find it.

The astute Tim may through hook or crook bring him to the front, but it is hoped that for the good of the game he is unsuccessful.

FIGHT GAME CRUSHED BY POLICE

WORCESTER, Mass., Feb. 7.—That the state police mean to quash the fighting game in Massachusetts was evidenced today when Marsh Bartholomew, the manager of the Webster Lake Athletic Club, reported to Chief Shaw a communication to the effect that arrests would follow if the fight between Turner and Thompson took place.

TURNER SIGNS TO FIGHT WITH CYCLONE THOMPSON

Barney Van Buskirk has succeeded in securing the services of Rufe Turner for his Washington's Birthday fight with Cyclone Thompson. Turner was matched by both the Maryland people and Vallejo at the same time and for a time it was hard to say just where he would fight.

WILLIAMS IS FRED WARD IS AFTER A FIGHT.

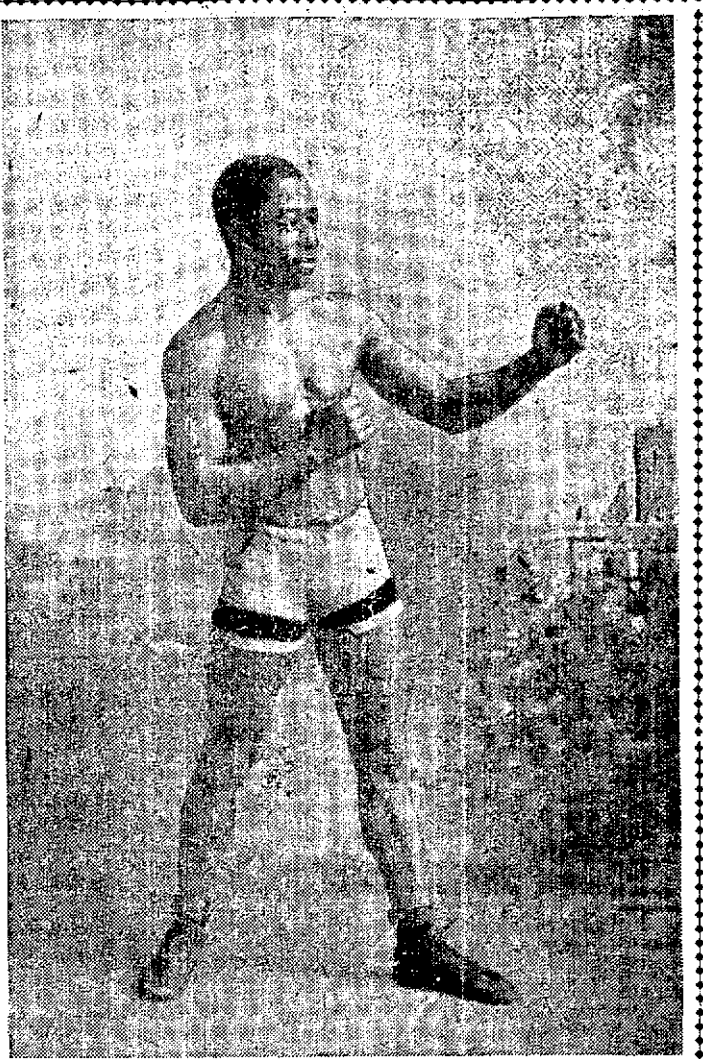

James Richardson, of 1117 Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, writes that he is now managing Harry Williams and that he would like to match his charge with Johnny Jones, George Plamondon, A. Emrick or anyone who will make 115 or 118 pounds. Williams is the only amateur to beat Harry Baker, the lad who has been boxing at Los Angeles.

NEW MACHINE TO BE SHOWN

The Automobile Show will soon be upon us. It is to take place in the Coliseum, in San Francisco, February 18 to 25. Every make of Automobile on the market will probably be represented, and it will be a sight worth seeing, especially to those who are interested in this wonderful modern means of transportation.

JOHNSON AND LOAGUE MAY FIGHT

Henry Loague and Spider Kelly's boy, Willie Johnson, will probably meet in the main event at the Reliance Club this month. This would prove a highly interesting contest and one that would please the fans.

ONE YEAR RULE CONSIDERED BY COLLEGES

PROF. G. C. EDWARDS SPEAKS ABOUT ATHLETICS.

Stanford-Berkeley Relations Are Reviewed at Length by Expert.

BERKELEY, Feb. 7.—Relations existing between the athletic committees of California and Stanford are reviewed at length by Professor George C. Edwards of the faculty committee on athletics at the University of California in the following statement:

PRESIDENTS AGREE.
"Last December a call was issued upon agreement between the presidents of the two universities for a meeting of the faculty committees on athletics, together with nine others, eight of whom were graduates and prominent undergraduates of the two universities, and one, who was never able to attend any of the meetings, a graduate of Harvard.

ANOTHER POINT.
"Another recommendation made by the joint committee, but which was not referred to this sub-committee, but to the faculties direct, was to the effect that in any athletic contest between the two universities represented and any of the universities or collegiate institutions of the Pacific Coast there should be an exchange of players certified to by the proper authorities to the effect that the participants were bona-fide students and in amateur standing to the best of the knowledge and belief of the party authorized to make the certificate.

STANFORD INQUIRED.
In August the students of California, knowing that certain measures had been adopted by the academic council, discussed those recommendations with students from Stanford, where, upon the students from Stanford made inquiry with regard to the same recommendations, and were informed, which was true, that no recommendations had been adopted there.

PROPER CAPTURES SSARG HANDICAP IN FINE STYLE

Foul by Jockey Miller Loses Grace G. the First Place in the Closing Race Yesterday.

By LEE DEMIER.
A card far above the ordinary, with the Secretariat as the main event, was the means of attracting a large gathering of race-lovers to Williams Park yesterday.

The baby race proved only an exercise for Tommy Griffin's bay filly, Albion. Favoring a 9 to 5 the daughter of Handsome, sprang-egged her field, winning by several lengths. The Hildreth entry divided the remainder of the purse. Memorize, starting for the first time, ran a good race and secured place honors from her stable-mate, Be Thankful. The latter, by the way, is a half brother to the winner.

A big clean-up was made by the McCafferty contingent when Nine Spot captured the mile and twenty yard affair. Backed up 9 to 2 the daughter of Lyrus, who always had the bay mare, was always within striking distance, and when ready, just galloped home. Ray was slow to move, but came strong at the end and beat out the fast tiring.

The track was made to Gateway's order and the six furlong dash was easy for him. Van Ness had his usual speed but tired at the end, but outgamed.

Starter Dwyer had his hands full, when the last post for the Santa Anita-Tony Past took a notion to do a few fancy steps and before he got through, a general kicking match resulted. After about twenty minutes delay he sent them away for good start. Proper soon went to the front and never let the result in doubt. Tony Faust came fast at the end and secured placed honors from Volody. The latter ran a cracking good race. The winner was heavily played and easily outclassed his field. The big bay horse was cheered to the echo when he returned to the winner's circle.

The track was made to Gateway's order and the six furlong dash was easy for him. Van Ness had his usual speed but tired at the end, but outgamed.

TRIBUNE SUBSCRIBERS who fail to receive their paper before six o'clock every evening should telephone to the Circulation Department, Oakland 528, and the Carrier will be notified to deliver copy immediately.

AVALANCHE OF VOTES IN TRIBUNE POPULAR CONTEST

Several Contestants Forced to Surrender
First Positions to Hustling Opponents.

From the way the different candidates are putting in their time and bending every energy and effort in securing subscriptions to THE TRIBUNE, it is an evident fact that they intend winning.

Every one realizes that a great deal of extra work will have to be done in the few remaining days of the contest. Three weeks exactly until the close and every coupon and subscription will have to be in the office before 10 p. m. Thursday, February 28, in order to be counted.

Hustle must be the pass word from now on and don't relent one single instant in your efforts or give up in despair because you do not head the list today for with an extra effort on your part you may be able to be the leader of that very same list in a few days yourself.

Now that the different classes for which prizes are offered have been thinned out considerably every contestant has an idea as to about the amount of work that will have to be done in order to win the prize for which they are working.

HANDSOME GAINS.

In the last few days several handsome gains have been made by a few of the contestants, simply the result of a little work and an effort put forth to secure a few subscriptions paid in advance to THE TRIBUNE.

It is best now to wake up to the fact that if your intentions are to win that you will have to get down to work and real good hard work at that, for those who are competing with you are working just as hard and it behooves you to lose no time. For time means votes in this contest.

SHE TAKES LEAD.

Miss Laura Jorgensen, one of Oakland's fairest daughters in the TRIBUNE popularity contest, jumped to the head of the list yesterday with nearly 20,000 votes to her credit. Miss Jorgensen is a very popular young lady among her wide circle of friends who are rallying to her support in an amazing way.

Miss Victoria Garcia, another of Oakland's fair ones has developed a great amount of strength during the last week, as she jumps to second place with a total of 18,566 votes. Joseph F. Rebol, one of the popular union men took first place from J. E. Bray yesterday with a handsome gain of over 3000 votes ahead of Mr. Bray. Mr. Rebol surprised several of his friends who concluded that he had withdrawn from the race, but now since he has made such a great spurt and jumped into first place they have redoubled their efforts in his behalf.

SURRENDERS FIRST.

Popular "Dan" Hallahan, one of the favorites in the Oakland Letter Carriers' race surrendered first place to Al J. King in the counting of yesterday's votes.

Fred Wille is fighting hard to make the goal and has done effective work all along the line.

LINE UP FRIENDS.

Have your friends lined up in good shape so that when the final rush of votes is made that they will be in the rush with enough votes to crown you the victor.

The anxious days are here now when each contestant is wondering how many more votes the other has and how many more votes will be needed to win one of the valuable prizes.
